Our Guides

Steve Osten
Steve has guided throughout the U.S., Canada, Mexico and South Africa for nearly 25 years. He studied Wildlife Biology with an emphasis on Animal Behavior at Kearney State College in Nebraska. One of his favorite projects focused on ethograms of river otter behavior. He also trained in Environmental Interpretation, with NOAA regarding the Orca whales of Puget Sound, and had the privilege of being a local naturalist and guide in Yellowstone National Park during his studies. One of the most thrilling parts of his job is to pass on to travelers an understanding of the intricate symbiotic relationships within America’s national parks.

Andrew Moran
Andrew’s touring career began with nine years supporting guided expeditions behind the wheel of a motor coach, an experience that inspired him seven years ago to become an Expedition Leader. He loves the opportunity to share knowledge with travelers, and is fortunate enough to spend summers in one of the most beautiful places in the world, Yellowstone National Park. He spends his time exploring its hundreds of hiking trails and walking paths, where there is always something new to see. Andrew was born in Salisbury, England.

State Game Lodge (Custer State Park)
Set in a beautiful mountain valley, surrounded by a ponderosa pine forest, this gracious stone and wood lodge served as the “Summer White House” for President Calvin Coolidge in 1927 and was visited by President Dwight D. Eisenhower for several days in 1953. Built in 1920, the lodge is listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Inside, you’ll discover a blend of the past and the present, the elegant and the outdoors. Enjoy South Dakota specialties like buffalo, pheasant, and trout in the historic Lodge Dining Room.

Spearfish Canyon Lodge (Spearfish Canyon)
Nestled alongside lofty pines and spectacular limestone cliffs, Spearfish Canyon Lodge was built and decorated in the style of the old lodges of the West with heavy log walls and a 40-foot stone fireplace. Several hiking trails outside the Lodge door allow visitors to experience the sights and sounds of nature firsthand as they meander through the forest to a Black Hills waterfall or hike to the rim of the canyon.

Lake Yellowstone Hotel (Yellowstone National Park)
Originally built in 1891 and restored in 1990, the classically elegant Lake Yellowstone Hotel is situated on the shores of North America’s largest mountain lake. A spacious sunroom offers sweeping views of the lake at sunrise or sunset and a great spot to soak in the grandeur of the park’s oldest hotel.

Old Faithful Inn (Yellowstone National Park)
Built during the winter of 1903-04, the Old Faithful Inn is one of the few remaining log hotels in the United States. Located adjacent to the world famous Old Faithful Geyser, the building is a rustic log and wood-frame structure with gigantic proportions: nearly 700 feet in length and seven stories high. It is a masterpiece of rustic architecture in its stylized design and fine craftsmanship, and its influence on American architecture, particularly park architecture, has been immeasurable. The original part of the Inn, known as the “Old House” was completed in 1904 and includes an immense lobby with a huge stone fireplace. Guest accommodations include rooms with private and shared baths. A full service restaurant, deli, gift store and interpretive tours are available at the Inn. A national historic landmark, Old Faithful Inn is the most requested lodging facility in the Yellowstone National Park.

The Rustic Inn (Jackson)
Whether you’d like to lose yourself in nature’s grandeur or find yourself in the middle of Jackson Hole’s lively downtown scene, the Rustic Inn Creekside Resort & Spa offers the finest Western accommodations just steps away from it all. Surrounded by seven lush acres adjacent to the National Elk Refuge, outdoor enthusiasts can easily enjoy everything Jackson and its spectacular environs has to offer. The Rustic Inn offers an outdoor pool, spa tub, sauna, fitness equipment, and spa services.

Radisson Rapid City (Rapid City)
Situated close by the Journey Museum and Gardens, and Dinosaur Park, this hotel features a cafe, restaurant, lounge, indoor pool and spa tub.

Holiday Inn Cody at Buffalo Bill Village (Cody)
With Buffalo Bill Historical Center and Old Trail Town nearby, this comfortable hotel is perfectly situated and features a pool, restaurant and lounge.
