DEAR DEACON TRAVELER,

Imagine being lulled to sleep as you cruise along Canada’s dazzling waterways. Picture yourself at a sidewalk café in Paris, soaking up the rich history of one of the world’s most famous cities. Or explore bountiful Tuscan markets and sample the local wines like royalty in one of Chianti’s castles. Welcome to your 2014 Wake Forest travel adventure! We have something for everyone.

This year’s tour schedule can help to create your travel experience of a lifetime. And we invite you to share it with fellow Demon Deacons! Our tours are open to all alumni, friends and family members, including parents of current and past students. Most of our trip departures are shared with other university alumni associations providing you with the opportunity to meet many others who enjoy travel.

Join us as we travel around the world, bringing Demon Deacon spirit everywhere we go. If you have any questions about our tour offerings or would like more information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Happy traveling and Go Deacs!

Turkey — where Europe and Asia meet to form “the cradle of civilization” — is yours to discover on this exclusive 15-day tour. Begin your journey in Istanbul, Turkey’s cultural and spiritual heart. The city astonishes with its legendary Blue Mosque, Hagia Sofia, and Topkapi Palace, one of the world’s richest museums. Then travel south to the sacred World War I battlefield of Gallipoli, ferry across the Dardanelles to Troy, and explore the wealth of Greco-Roman ruins at ancient Pergamum. Spend a full day at Turkey’s nonpareil classical city, Ephesus. Among its treasures are the grand Library of Celsus and a 25,000-seat amphitheater with excellent acoustics and splendid views. Visit a carpet factory for a demonstration and enjoy lunch in a local village before boarding a privately chartered gulet yacht. For four splendid days cruise the exquisite Turquoise Coast, relaxing and discovering hidden sights, quaint fishing villages and remote ruins. End your journey in the seaside resort Antalya, with a side trip to ancient Perge. There is an optional 5-day/4-night post-tour extension for those who wish to see the remarkable rock formations of Cappadocia and Ankara, Turkey’s capital.

Discover the brilliant tapestry of culture, tradition and beauty woven into the cities and towns along the shores of Monaco, France, Italy, Greece and Croatia, aboard Oceania Cruises Marina, a haven of elegance. Set out from exciting Barcelona for the colorful French port of Marseille, and perhaps venture into idyllic Provence to stroll its lovely medieval villages. Take in more charm in Antibes, a quaint town on the Côte d’Azur that once served as a glamorous getaway for the likes of Cole Porter and F. Scott Fitzgerald. Cruise to Italy and stop in Livorno, gateway to the Tuscan countryside and the legendary Renaissance cities of Florence and Pisa — two icons of art and architecture. Marvelous wonders like the Colosseum, the Trevi Fountain and St. Peter’s Basilica await you in the eternal city of Rome. Visit Sorrento, a delightful seaside resort and walk through the nearby ruins of Pompeii, or travel to Capri and admire its rustic Italian beauty. Cruise south to the Sicilian town of Taormina, a mix of ancient ruins and vibrant, modern shops before heading to the stunning island of Corfu. Find quaint, charming villages amid its lush, emerald landscape dotted with olive trees. Explore Dubrovnik, Croatia’s walled city and a red-tiled jewel, evolved from centuries of Roman, Venetian and Slavic rule, and Venice, a romantic masterpiece built on water. Admire the city’s opulent palazzi and enchanting squares set amid a network of weaving canals and bridges, where your incredible journey concludes.
TRAVEL INFORMATION

MISSION
The mission of the Wake Forest Alumni Travel program is to provide alumni and friends with the opportunity to tour the world, and to maintain a connection to Wake Forest and each other.

TOUR SCHEDULE
The Wake Forest Alumni Travel tour schedule is compiled from various specialized tour operators. The tour operators have met our criteria for financial responsibility, established reputation, guaranteed departures, professional staff, quality operations and dependability. We require all tour operators to carry professional liability insurance. Prices are competitive and often advantageous.

TRAVEL ARRANGEMENTS
Travel arrangements will be handled by the particular tour operator designated for each tour. Dates, itineraries, program details and costs are given in good faith based on information available at the time of this printing. THEY ARE SUBJECT TO CHANGE AND REVISION. All trip prices are per person and are based on double occupancy and current exchange rates and tariffs unless otherwise noted.

EXPECTATIONS
Our tours are designed for those who are lively, inquisitive and eager to broaden their cultural and intellectual horizons. All tour members are expected to enjoy traveling as a part of a group and to be tolerant of the occasional changes, delays or minor mishaps that are part of any kind of travel, whether individual or group.

REFUND POLICY
Refund policies may vary slightly for certain programs, but generally are as follows: Written cancellations from time of booking up to 90 days prior to departure will be assessed an administrative fee. Within 90 days of departure, refunds vary according to the policies of each tour operator. The Alumni Services office is unable to request or provide refunds for our travelers.
PLEASE READ THE CANCELLATION CLAUSES WITHIN EACH TRIP BROCHURE VERY CAREFULLY.

FAILURE TO DO SO CAN BE QUITE COSTLY.

SINGLE ACCOMMODATIONS
Programs offer a limited number of single rooms, available on a first-come, first-served basis. A single supplement charge applies to these accommodations. On some cruises, the single charge can be close to double the price.

PHYSICAL CONDITIONING
Many of our programs have an outdoor component and require some walking. To enjoy the Wake Forest Alumni Travel experience, participants must be in good physical and mental health and must be able to keep up with the pace of the group. Participants who require extraordinary assistance must be accompanied by someone who can and will provide all required assistance.

REGISTRATION
Space is reserved in the order tour operators receive deposits. Deposits are applicable to payment of the program fee and will be returned if space is not available. Balance of payment is due upon receipt of final invoice from the tour operator, according to the operator’s payment schedule. If the program of your choice is fully subscribed when they receive your application, they will automatically place you on a waiting list, and will contact you if space becomes available. Should you choose to withdraw your name from the waiting list, please notify the tour operator and they will return your deposit. Some of our trips fill within two to three weeks of catalog/brochure mailing, so register early to avoid disappointment.
