PARENTS & FAMILIES SESSION

BLOCK 2 / 1:15–2:15 P.M.

---

Concurrent Sessions:

Parents and families are highly encouraged to attend one of these important sessions.

- A Campus Response to High-Risk Behavior
Benson University Center, 401 A/D

This session for parents and families addressing high-risk student behaviors will provide information regarding what parents and families can do to help support their students in making safe and healthy decisions. It includes a review of campus resources, programs, services and policies.

- Student Engagement Opportunities / Fraternity and Sorority Life

Benson University Center, Pugh Auditorium
Organizational involvement is a key aspect in helping students find their sense of belonging. Members of the Office of Student Engagement will discuss general advice, specific circumstances and standards students need to understand in order to best take advantage of the opportunities offered by the 175 student organizations and 25 fraternities and sororities at Wake Forest. Discussion will include the many ways in which the Office of Student Engagement and campus partners work with students to create a safe and supportive social environment while "Helping Every Deacon Find Their Place."

- Time Management, Tutoring, Accommodations, Oh My!

Benson University Center, 409

Once students move onto campus as first-year students, they are often expected to be able to advocate for themselves, tap into campus resources and navigate the newly discovered world of college life and independence. This session is designed to help parents and families understand how resources available at the Learning Assistance Center and Disability Services can help all students address key components of academic success. We will cover tutoring, peer mentoring, academic coaching and counseling and other essential tools for success. Additionally, we will discuss the process of requesting and implementing reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities.

- Staying Safe at WAKE – Campus Safety

Benson University Center, 410

Crime and safety will always be a concern for parents when sending their children off to college. Everyone must work collaboratively to keep our community safe. Parents and families will learn about services and resources protecting our Wake Forest University campus community. Representatives from the Office of the Dean of Students and University Police will be present to help you understand our community standards and how they support student safety and wellbeing.

Building Community through Diversity & Inclusion

9 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 3 p.m.

During this interactive session, students will engage in activities and discussions that encourage self-awareness and appreciation of the similarities and differences that exist between members of our community. Students will also explore how experiences of inclusion and exclusion impact one's sense of belonging and connection. They will also practice using empathy as a tool for building meaningful relationships and a stronger sense of community with their peers. Schedule will be provided by RAs. Non-residential and transfer students will receive scheduling information by email by Friday, August 24. Attendance is required.

PREPARE Talks

9 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 3 p.m.

Trained student facilitators will engage small groups in an interactive program to discuss Wake Forest's culture of respect committed to preventing incidents of sexual misconduct. Strategies will be discussed for effectively caring for each other through healthy relationships and awareness of resources. Schedule will be provided by RAs. Non-residential and transfer students will receive scheduling information by email by Friday, August 24. Attendance is required.

“Wake World”

9 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 3 p.m.

Scales Fine Arts Center, Mainstage Theatre

An entertaining and thought-provoking theatrical snapshot of college life created and performed by members of the Department of Theatre and Dance. Schedule will be provided by RAs. Non-residential and transfer students will receive scheduling information by email by Friday, August 24. Attendance is required.

Wellbeing at Wake

9 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 3 p.m.

This interactive session is designed to aid students in learning skills to understand and navigate the local campus landscape as it relates to wellbeing, alcohol, drugs and safety. Through games, videos and a discussion from the experts (current Demon Deacons), students will discover resources for a successful campus life. Schedule and locations provided by RAs. Non-residential and transfer students will receive scheduling information by email by Friday, August 24. Attendance is required.

Lunch On Your Own

12–1:15 p.m.

Lunch Options and Locations: Chick-fil-A, Einstein's, Forest Greens, The Fresh Food Company (The Pit), Hilltop Market, Hissho Sushi, Moe's, POD Market at North, Shorty's, Starbucks (ZSR & North Dining), Subway & POD, Village Juice, Zick's and 336 Market. Please see the New Deac Week app for the hours of operation for each location.

Dinner with Advising Group or On Your Own
5:30—8 p.m.

---

Some of you will dine with academic and student advisers tonight; others will have dinner with your advising group on Sunday, September 2, 9 or 16. Advisers will have provided information about scheduling at the group meeting earlier this week. At this dinner gathering, you can get to know each other in a casual setting and discuss transitioning to Wake Forest University or other topics. Attendance at your advising group dinner is required at the time it is scheduled.

Saturday Nite Live
9:30 p.m.—1 a.m.

On Jasper Memory Lane (South Campus)

---

The Office of Residence Life and Housing invite you to participate in this annual block party-style event. Food trucks and games will be stationed outside of South Campus residence halls with free food. All new students will be welcome, so you are encouraged to walk around and make some new friends from different buildings. Prizes will be given away throughout the night with a grand prize at the end of the evening.

SUNDAY

AUGUST 26, 2018

NEW DEAC WEEK DAY 5

Campus Bookstore

9 a.m.—5 p.m.

Taylor Residence Hall

The Campus Bookstore is open each day during New Deac Week for purchase of school supplies and textbooks (the textbook department is downstairs). Textbooks ordered online at wfustores.com are available within 48 hours of order placement starting Thursday, August 23, from 8:30 a.m.—5 p.m. For more information, see wfustores.com.

Wake Forest: A Tradition of Honor and Integrity 9—10:45 a.m.

Location provided by RAs

Learn about the Honor Code and expectations regarding student conduct at Wake Forest. Through small group meetings facilitated by RAs, you will explore case scenarios featuring real-life situations and dilemmas regarding the Honor Code and responsible and safe behavior in various aspects of student life. Following this session, you will be required to complete an online quiz regarding rules, expectations, honor and student conduct. At the close of this session, students will complete one of two national surveys about student experiences and goals, the results of which are very important to Wake Forest. Non-residential and transfer students will receive scheduling information by email by Friday, August 24. Attendance is required.

Wake Forest Baptist Church Service

11 a.m.—noon

Wait Chapel

The congregation of Wake Forest Baptist Church holds weekly services in Wait Chapel. All are welcome.

Mindful Mornings

11 a.m.—noon

Scales Fine Arts Center, Breezeway

Start your day with an exploration of a third set of simple contemplative practices that will help you achieve academic and personal wellbeing in college and beyond.

Catholic Mass

11:30 a.m.—12:30 p.m.

Benson University Center, Pugh Auditorium

All are welcome.

Project Wake: Conversations on Character

1:30—3 p.m.

Meet with your Project Wake reading discussion group! Students who registered should follow the instructions sent by email prior to arrival.

Religious Life Meet and Greet

3:15—4:15 p.m.

Benson University Center, Third Floor Lounge

Meet chaplains, campus ministers, religious life leaders and students to learn about religious and spiritual opportunities at Wake Forest.

Pitstop

4:30—6:30 p.m.

Location will be determined by your student adviser

First-year students are asked to grab dinner with their student advisers at one of the on-campus venues ("The Pit," North Campus Dining, etc.) so that they can ask last-minute questions before the first day of class. Attendance is required.

Seating for Spirit of Wake Forest

6:30—7 p.m.

Wait Chapel

Students will meet with student advisers to be seated together in Wait Chapel. Attendance is required.

Spirit of Wake Forest

7—9 p.m.

Wait Chapel

Learn about Wake Forest traditions — aWake All Night, Hit the Bricks, Homecoming, Lovefeast, MLK Celebration, Project Pumpkin, Rolling the Quad, South Campus Area Councils, Springfest and Wake 'N Shake — as student leaders introduce you to the Spirit of Wake Forest. Attendance is required.

Deacs Get Up & Go!

10 p.m.—midnight

See Guidebook for specific details regarding activity & locations

Come join classmates for a run on the campus trails or a morning yoga, spin cycle or group exercise class.

FALL IN THE FOREST

THE FIRST WEEK OF CLASSES AND BEYOND

New students cannot learn everything about what it takes to have a successful college experience in a few days before the semester even starts. Therefore, new student orientation programming continues through the fall. This way, you can continue to learn while you are experiencing what it is actually like to be a student at Wake Forest. Two fall semester check-ins are required.

MONDAY, AUGUST 27, CLASSES BEGIN!

UNITY Project

10 a.m. – noon, 3–5 p.m.

ZSR Library Circle

UNITY is an interactive public art project that examines how labels both help and hinder our ability to build and live in community. This canopy of interconnectedness celebrates the uniqueness of individuals and raises awareness of how labels impact our perception of and interactions with the world. Come with a friend, your hallmates or by yourself to contribute your unique identity to the display!

International Students' Kickoff Picnic

5–6 p.m.

Davis Field across from Davis Residence Hall (Rain location: Scales Fine Arts Center, Lower Lobby)

Sponsored by International Students and Scholar Services

School of Business Information Session for Students

6–7 p.m.

Farrell Hall, Broyhill Auditorium, Lower Level

Students interested in possible study in the School of Business are strongly encouraged to attend. Session will be led by a member of the Undergraduate Integrative Student Services team, WFU School of Business.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 28

UNITY Project

10 a.m. – noon, 3–5 p.m.

ZSR Library Circle

UNITY is an interactive public art project that examines how labels both help and hinder our ability to build and live in community. This canopy of interconnectedness celebrates the uniqueness of individuals and raises awareness of how labels impact our perception of and interactions with the world. Come with a friend, your hallmates or by yourself to contribute your unique identity to the display!

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29

Faculty House Calls

6–7 p.m.

First-year Residence Halls

Sponsored by the Office of Residence Life and Housing. Faculty members will visit the residence halls to welcome you to Wake Forest! Plan to be in your room to meet professors and learn firsthand about the teacher-scholar model at Wake Forest.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 31

Z. Smith Reynolda Library Open House

5–7 p.m.

Z. Smith Reynolds Library

ZSR Library invites the class of 2022 to a special open house, which will include a tour of the library. Have fun learning about library resources and services available to you through a series of interactive games and activities! Light refreshments will be provided.

Outbreak@ZSR

7:30–9 p.m.

Z. Smith Reynolds Library

Join a group of humans as they band together in an attempt to ward off the zombie horde roaming through the 170,000 square feet of the ZSR Library. Survival gear will be provided! Sponsored by the Z. Smith Reynolds Library and the WFU Student Activities Fund.

SUNDAY, SEPT. 2, SEPT. 9 OR SEPT. 16

Dinner with Advising Group

6–8 p.m.

Location provided by your adviser

Some students' advising group dinner is scheduled for September 2, 9 or 16. At this gathering, you can get to know each other in a casual setting and discuss transitioning to Wake Forest University or other topics. Attendance at your advising group dinner is required at the time it is scheduled.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5

Student Involvement Fair

3:30–6 p.m.

Manchester Plaza (Rain date: Thursday, Sept. 6, 3–5 p.m.)

Meet students, student leaders and local nonprofit agency representatives. Learn more about getting involved in student organizations on campus as well as opportunities in the local Winston-Salem community.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8

WAKE THE DEMONS! New Student Tailgate

9:30–11:30 a.m.

BB&T Field

Join your new classmates at the first football home game when Wake Forest plays Towson. Prior to the game you will join us at the Joel Coliseum for free food, music, a Wake The Demons t-shirt and getting into the Wake Forest spirit to cheer the Demon Deacons to victory. Enjoy games, music and lots of fun prizes. You will storm the field as a class and be a part of the pre-game excitement before kickoff. Transportation will be provided. Details about time and place to meet will be available from RAs prior to game day. Attendance highly encouraged – GO DEACS!

Kickoff against Towson is at noon (BB&T Field).

FIRST SEMESTER CHECK-INS

The two check-ins listed below provide an important opportunity for you to reflect and dialogue with your peers on critical areas of first-year experience. Attendance and short reflections required of all first-year students; attendance will be taken.

Check-in #1

September 9–20

Step Up: Becoming an Active Bystander

Demon Deacons look out for each other. This session will teach students about the variety of situations they may encounter on a college campus and how best to intervene safely and effectively. In addition, this session will instill a sense of responsibility for the safety and wellbeing of all members of the WFU community and beyond. You are expected to attend a Step Up: Becoming an Active Bystander session. You will be responsible for scheduling and completing the session on your own. In the case of a university-approved conflict, it is your responsibility to attend a session with an alternate group at a different time.

Check-In #2

September 23–September 29

Academic Success Event (with SAs)

Your student adviser will provide you with more information regarding your group meeting time and location.

MAKING OF A DEMON DEACON

On Thursday, August 23, between 9:30 and 10 a.m.,* new students gather in the designated student area on Hearn Plaza inside the painted arc and in front of the stage. Upon entering this area, students obtain a Wake Forest pin from a student leader standing on the arc. Parents and family members please gather in a horseshoe ring just behind the painted arc, around the students.

PROGRAM

Musical Performance

Welcome

Daniel Reeves ('19)
Student Government President

Remarks

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST,
THINE IS A NOBLE NAME;
THINE IS A GLORIOUS FAME,
CONSTANT AND TRUE.
WE GIVE THEE OF OUR PRAISE,
ADORE THINE ANCIENT DAYS,
SING THEE OUR HUMBLE LAYS,

MOTHER, SO DEAR

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST,
MYSTIC THY NAME TO CHEER;
BE THOU OUR GUARDIAN NEAR FORE'ER AND AYE.
WE BOW BEFORE THY SHRINE,
THY BROW WITH BAYS ENTWINE,
ALL HONOR NOW BE THINE,
MOTHER, TODAY.

FRIDAY, SEPT. 28—SUNDAY, SEPT. 30

Family Weekend

---

Mark your calendars and plan to join your Wake student for an action-packed weekend filled with activities and FUN for all. Learn about summer internships, visit the Reynolda House Museum of American Art, attend the student a cappella showcase, Family Weekend Tailgate, Deacs vs. Syracuse football game, visit several of the open houses offered throughout the weekend, learn the history of Wake Forest, enjoy Sunday Brunch and so much more. For information, visit familyweekend.wfu.edu or contact Kathy Arnett in the Office of Student Engagement at arnettkc@wfu.edu.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3

Major/Minor Fair

3–5 p.m.

Benson University Center, 401

---

The Major/Minor Fair is a great chance to learn about requirements and opportunities available in various majors and minors from faculty and student representatives.

OCTOBER 22—NOVEMBER 2

Advising for Spring Registration

---

Be sure to schedule (and attend!) a meeting with your adviser during this period. The advising meeting provides a wonderful opportunity to update your adviser about how your semester is going and to get your adviser's advice about your current work as well as courses for spring semester. And, as another detail ... you must attend this meeting in order to get the Personal Identification Number (PIN) you will need to register for spring semester courses. Attendance required!

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3

Homecoming

---

Attend homecoming events. For more information, visit homecoming.wfu.edu.
