Residence Halls Open for Move-in
8 a.m.—4 p.m.

Your new home away from home awaits your arrival! University officials will be posted to help you navigate your way to your assigned residence hall. Move-in crews will be available to help unload your car and carry items to your new room, while you meet your residence hall staff. Although the residence halls will remain open until 4 p.m. for Move-in, the Move-in crews will be available for moving assistance from 8 a.m.—5 p.m. only.

Campus Services and Information Fair
8 a.m.—4 p.m.
Benson University Center, Fourth Floor

Stop by the Benson University Center to pick up your Deacon OneCard (student ID), mailbox key and other information. Representatives from Financial and Accounting Services, Financial Aid, Deacon Dining Services, Information Systems, Student Health Service, Learning Assistance Center and Disabilities Services, Textbooks and University Stores and other offices will be available to answer your questions until approximately 4 p.m. Parents and families are invited to stop by the Office of Family Engagement table.

Highlighted Sessions are Those That Parents and Families Attend, Alone or With Students.
Chick-fil-A, Einstein’s, and students.

Program on back cover.

families form a horseshoe ring around students.

the designated area in front of the stage.

Upon the chiming of the carillon, students gather in student leaders welcome our newest Demon Deacons.

A ceremony in which Provost Rogan Kersh (’86) and 9:30—10 a.m. by the Spirit of the Old Gold and Black marching band.

Services and the dean of the College, and attended by continental breakfast provided by Deacon Dining

Benson University Center, Room 401)

Continental Breakfast on Hearn Plaza

more information, see

Deacs Get Up & Go!

New Deac Week

Campus Bookstore

8:30 a.m.—5 p.m.

See Guidebook for specific details regarding activity

& locations

Come join classmates for a run on the campus trails or a morning yoga, spin cycle or group exercise class.

Campus Bookstore

The Campus Bookstore is open each day during New Deac Week for the purchase of school supplies and textbooks. Textbooks ordered online at wfustores.com are available within 48 hours of order placement starting Thursday, August 23, from 8:30 a.m.—5 p.m. For more information, visit wfustores.com.

Continental Breakfast on Hearn Plaza

8:30—9:30 a.m.

(In case of rain, the picnic will take place in the Benson University Center, Room 401)

New students and their families are invited to a continental breakfast provided by Deacon Dining Services and the dean of the College, and attended by the president, provost and other administrators. Music by the Spirit of the Old Gold and Black marching band.

Making of a Demon Deacon

• Breakfast—8:30 a.m.

South half of Hearn Plaza (Reynolda Hall side)

A ceremony in which Provost Rogan Kersh (’86) and student leaders welcome our newest Demon Deacons. Upon the chiming of the carillon, students gather in the designated area in front of the stage. Parents and families form a horseshoe ring around students. Program on back cover. Attendance is required for students. Parents and families encouraged to attend.

First-year Student Academic Orientation:

Small Group Meetings with Advisers

10:15 a.m.—noon

First-year students report for assigned group meetings. Locations are listed inside the back cover of the New Deac Week brochure and on the Guidebook app under “Advisor Room Assignment.” If possible, bring your smartphone to access the Undergraduate Bulletin. Attendance is required.

Transfer Student Academic Orientation

10:15 a.m.—noon

Reynolda Hall, Magnolia Room, 2nd Floor

Transfer students report for assigned group meetings. If possible, bring your smartphone to access the Undergraduate Bulletin. Attendance is required.

Academic Success and the Career Journey

10:15—11:15 a.m.

Wait Chapel

Discover how to support your student’s college-to-career journey, including his/her academic success, choice of major, internships and transition to graduate school or first job. Senior Associate Dean Christy Buchanan and Vice President Andy Chan will describe resources in the Office of Academic Advising and the Office of Personal and Career Development. They will introduce a comprehensive approach to personal and career development and offer you tips and resources.

The Spirit of Wake Forest for Parents and families

11:15—11:45 a.m.

Wait Chapel

President Hatch and senior University officials describe Wake Forest’s enduring mission and values in the context of a rapidly changing higher education landscape. Mary and Gary Pinkus (’20, P ’22) of the Parents’ Council will bring greetings.

Lunch On Your Own (unless attending the lunch time events below)

noon—1:15 p.m.

Lunch Options and Locations: Chick-fil-A, Einstein’s, Forest Greens, The Fresh Food Company (The Pit), Hilltop Market, Ichibao Sushi, Legal Grounds, Starbucks (ZSR & North Dining), Subway & POD, Village Juice, Zick’s and 336 Market. Please see the New Deac Week app for the hours of operation for each location.

Reception for Jewish Students and families

noon—1:15 p.m.

Benson University Center, 3rd Floor Botuda

Shalom! Jewish students and their families are invited to join the WPU Jewish community and friends to enjoy homemade Jewish foods and goodies prepared in our WPU kosher kitchen so you don’t have to worry about lunch. Jewish students, faculty and staff will share information about the many Jewish services and programs on campus. RSVPs appreciated. Contact Gail Bresnan at bresnang@wfu.edu or 336.758.4056.

Reception for Latinx Families

Recepción Para Familias Latinas

noon—1:15 p.m.

Benson University Center, 346

A reception for Latinx students and their families. Latinx faculty and staff will offer information in Spanish. Una recepción para estudiantes latinos y sus familias. Profesores y personal universitario latino ofrecerán información en español. Join us for pupusas, empanadas and more!

UNITY Project

noon—1 p.m.

ZSR Library Circle

UNITY is an interactive public art project that examines how labels both help and hinder our ability to build and live in community. This canopy of interconnectedness celebrates the uniqueness of individuals and raises awareness of how labels impact our perception of and interactions with the world. Come with a friend, your hallmates or by yourself to contribute your unique identity to the display! Be sure to visit the UNITY Project during one of the opportunities provided August 25-26 or August 27-28.

Concurrent Sessions:

Parents and families are highly encouraged to attend one of these important sessions.

• A Campus Response to High-Risk Behavior

Benson University Center, 401/A/D

This session for parents and families addressing high-risk student behaviors will provide information regarding what parents and families can do to help general advice, specific circumstances and standards students need to understand in order to best take advantage of the opportunities offered by the 175 student organizations and 25 fraternities and sororities at Wake Forest.

Discussion will include the many ways in which the Office of Student Engagement and campus partners work with students to create a safe and supportive social environment while “Helping Every Deacon Find Their Place.”

• Student Engagement Opportunities / Fraternity and Sorority Life

Benson University Center, Pugh Auditorium

Organizational involvement is a key aspect in helping students find their sense of belonging. Members of the Office of Student Engagement will discuss general advice, specific circumstances and standards students need to understand in order to best take advantage of the opportunities offered by the 175 student organizations and 25 fraternities and sororities at Wake Forest.

Discussion will include the many ways in which the Office of Student Engagement and campus partners work with students to create a safe and supportive social environment while “Helping Every Deacon Find Their Place.”

• Time Management, Tutoring, Accommodations, Oh My!

Benson University Center, 409

Once students move onto campus as first-year students, they are often expected to be able to advocate for themselves, tap into campus resources and navigate the newly discovered world of college life and independence. This session is designed to help parents and families understand how resources available at the Learning Assistance Center and Disability Services can help all students address key components of academic success.

We will cover tutoring, peer mentoring, academic coaching and counseling and other essential tools for success. Additionally, we will discuss the process of requesting and implementing reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities.

• Staying Safe at WAKE – Campus Safety

Benson University Center, 410

Crime and safety will always be a concern for parents when sending their children off to college. Everyone must work collaboratively to keep our community safe. Parents and families will learn about services and resources protecting our Wake Forest University campus community. Representatives from the Office of the Dean of Students and University Police will be present to help you understand our community standards and how they support student safety and wellbeing.

Legal Careers Session for Students

1:15—2 p.m.

Benson University Center, 401C

Students considering law school should attend this meeting with, Patty Poole, the pre-law advisor.

Health Careers Session for Students

1:15—2 p.m.

Scales Fine Arts Center, Brendle Recital Hall (Music Wing, right of breezeway)

Students interested in health professions (e.g., medicine, dentistry, veterinary medicine, physician’s assistant, pharmacy, physical therapy, nursing) will meet with Dr. Carole Gibson, director of health professions, and Dr. John Tomlinson, assistant director of health professions. Attendance is required for all students with these interests.

Pre-graduate School Advising Information Session for Students

1:15—2 p.m.

Scales Fine Arts Center, Room 102

Students considering a future that includes graduate school are invited to attend this meeting about pre-graduate school advising.
PARENTS & FAMILIES SESSION

BLOCK 3
2:30—3:30 P.M.

Concurrent Sessions: Parents and families are highly encouraged to attend one of these important sessions.

- A Campus Response to High-Risk Behavior
  Benson University Center, 401A/D
  This session for parents and families addressing high-risk student behaviors will provide information regarding what parents and families can do to help support their students in making safe and healthy decisions. It includes a review of campus resources, programs, services and policies.

- Student Engagement Opportunities / Fraternity and Sorority Life
  Benson University Center, Pugh Auditorium
  Organizational involvement is a key aspect in helping students to find their sense of belonging. Members of the Office of Student Engagement will discuss general advice, specific circumstances and standards students need to understand in order to best take advantage of the opportunities offered by the 175 student organizations and 25 fraternities and sororities at Wake Forest. Discussion will include the many ways in which the Office of Student Engagement and campus partners work with students to create a safe and supportive social environment while “Helping Every Deacon Find Their Place.”

- Time Management, Tutoring, and campus partners work with students to create a safe and supportive social environment while “Helping Every Deacon Find Their Place.”

- Stay Safe at WAKE — Campus Safety
  Benson University Center, 410
  Safety will always be a concern for parents when sending their children off to college. Everyone must work collaboratively to keep our community safe. Parents and families will learn about services and resources protecting our Wake Forest University campus community. Representatives from the Office of the Dean of Students and University Police will be present to help you understand our community standards and how they support student safety and wellbeing.

- Diversity @ Wake Information Session
  3:45—5 p.m.
  Benson University Center, 401A/D
  Join the Intercultural Center, Women’s Center, LGBTQ Center and the International Student and Scholar Services for an hors d’oeuvres reception to learn about diversity at Wake and the resources each office offers. Attendees will learn about the roles each office plays in creating a vibrant campus culture and in supporting students, parents and families. Brief tours will be offered of each of the spaces.

- UNITY Project
  3—4 p.m.
  ZSR Library Circle
  UNITY is an interactive public art project that examines how labels both help and hinder our ability to build and live in community. This canopy of interconnectedness celebrates the uniqueness of individuals and raises awareness of how labels impact our perception of and interactions with the world. Come with a friend, your hallmates or by yourself to contribute your unique identity to the display!

- New ROTC Student, Parent and Family Orientation
  4—5:30 p.m.
  ROTC Building, Upstairs Classroom
  From College-to-Career
  5—6:30 p.m.
  Wait Chapel
  For Students ONLY: The Office of Personal and Career Development (OPCD) wants you to make the most of your time here at Wake Forest. We are here to empower you to flourish in your journey, work and life after Wake. Learn about all the resources the OPCD has available for you and become life-ready and how to make your college-to-career experience exceptional. Attendance is required.

- President’s Reception for Parents and families
  5—6:30 p.m.
  Farrell Hall, Founders Living Room
  President and Mrs. Hatch welcome parents and family members according to the following schedule. Casual attire is suggested.

LAST NAME

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A-D</th>
<th>E-H</th>
<th>I-L</th>
<th>M-P</th>
<th>Q-T</th>
<th>U-Z</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>5:00</td>
<td>5:15</td>
<td>5:30</td>
<td>5:45</td>
<td>6:00</td>
<td>6:15</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Time Scheduled

WAKE FOREST WELLBEING CENTER OPEN DAILY

5:30 A.M.—MIDNIGHT

Reynolds Gym & Sutton Center are open for your fitness and recreation pleasure. Come work out, swim, shoot some hoops, check out the message boards, or hang-out in the whirlpool or by the fireplace. The Wellbeing Center is the place to be!
Wake Forest Masters Swim Program
5:30 a.m.
WF Wellbeing Center
Interested in swimming for fitness or competition? Please participate in the masters swim program morning workout.

Campus Bookstore
8:30 a.m.—5 p.m.
Taylor Residence Hall
The Campus Bookstore is open each day during New Deac Week for purchase of school supplies and textbooks (the textbook department is downstairs). Textbooks ordered online at wfustores.com are available within 48 hours of order placement starting Thursday, August 23, from 8:30 a.m.—5 p.m. For more information, see wfustores.com.

Mindful Mornings
8—8:30 a.m.
Scales Fine Arts Center, Breezeway
Start your day with an exploration of the first of three sets of simple contemplative practices that will help you achieve academic and personal wellbeing in college and beyond.

Individual Advising Sessions
8 a.m.—1 p.m.
Academic advisers will schedule advising sessions during this time. Student athletes must complete their advising sessions by 10:45 a.m. Students planning to attend the Welcome Convocation must arrive by 12:30 p.m. should take the 12:15 p.m. shuttle to Wake Downtown. All students should depart Wish to arrive by 12:30 p.m. should take the 12:15 p.m. shuttle to Wake Downtown. All students should depart

UNITY Project
9 a.m.—2 p.m.
ZSR Library Circle
UNITY is an interactive public art project that examines how labels both help and hinder our ability to build and live in community. This canopy of interconnectedness celebrates the uniqueness of individuals and raises awareness of how labels impact our perception of and interactions with the world. Come with a friend, your hallmates or by yourself to contribute your unique identity to the display!

Service Open House
9 a.m.—noon
Campus Kitchen, Kitchin Residence Hall
Sponsored by the Pro Humanitate Institute. Students interested in getting involved in on- and off-campus initiatives are encouraged to drop by the Campus Kitchen Lounge. Staff and upperclass students will provide information about various service and social action programs and opportunities including Campus Kitchen, Volunteer Service Corps, Domestic Alternative Spring Break Trips, the Dash Corps and student-led philanthropies.

The Center for Global Programs & Studies (GPS) — Study Abroad/Away Interest Session
9 a.m., 10 a.m. and 11 a.m.
Benson University Center, Pugh Auditorium
The Center for Global Programs & Studies (GPS) invites students interested in study abroad/away opportunities to attend one of three informal sessions from 9-9:30 a.m., 10-10:30 a.m. or 11-11:30 a.m. Each session will be followed by a half-hour opportunity (9:30-10 a.m., 10:30-11 a.m., and 11:30 a.m.—noon) for drop-in and informal questions.

The Office of Student Engagement — Involvement, Engagement and Leadership Session
9 a.m., 10 a.m. and 11 a.m.
Benson University Center, 401 C
Interested in joining a student organization? Attend one of these sessions and learn about the 150+ student organizations at Wake Forest University and how to get involved. Student Engagement staff and student leaders will talk about engagement opportunities, what to look for in a student organization and how involvement can turn into a sense of belonging and leadership at Wake Forest.

Wake Downtown Department Open House
12:30—2 p.m.
Wake Downtown
Meet faculty and upperclass students in an informal setting at any time during this time. Students who wish to arrive by 12:30 p.m. should take the 12:15 p.m. shuttle to Wake Downtown. All students should depart Wake Downtown no later than 2:15 p.m. to return to the Reynolda Campus.

Engineering: Wake Downtown
Room 4502
Muslin Prayer Service
1—2 p.m.
Collins Residence Hall, A001
Muslin Student Lounge
This weekly service is open to people of all backgrounds and faiths.

Reynolda Campus Department Open Houses
1—3 p.m.
Meet faculty and upperclass students in informal settings at any time during this two-hour period.

American Ethnic Studies
Kirby Hall, Ground Floor
Anthropology
Museum of Anthropology, Lower Level
Art
Scales Fine Arts Center, Lower Lobby
Biology
 Winston Hall, Main Foyer
Center for Entrepreneurship
Reynolda Hall, Room 220
Chemistry
Salem Hall, Room 205
Classical Languages
Trible Hall, Room A301
Communication
Carrwell Foyer
Computer Science
Manchester Hall, Room 229
East Asian Languages and Cultures
Carrwell Hall, Room 507A
Economics
Kirby Hall, Thomas Taylor Atrium — 2nd Floor
Education
Trible Hall, Room B216
English
Trible Hall, Room A307
French Studies
Greene Hall, Room 535 (Faculty Lounge)
German and Russian
Greene Hall, Room 342
Health and Exercise Science
Lobby of HES Dept in the Wessel addition
History
Tribe Hall, Lobby
Mathematics and Statistics
Manchester Hall, Room 336
Military Science (ROTC)
ROTC Building, ROTC Lobby
Music
Scales Fine Arts Center, Room M309
Philosophy
Tribe Hall, Room B216
Physics
Ohio Physical Laboratory, Foyer
Politics and International Affairs
Kirby Hall, Room 159
Psychology
Greene Hall, Room 312
Department for the Study of Religions
Winston Hall, Room 116
Sociology
Kirby Hall, Ground Floor
Spanish and Italian
Greene Hall, 3rd Floor Atrium

Carillon Concert on Hear Plaza
3—3:30 p.m.
Raymond Ebert (60), University Carillonneur

New Student Convocation
3:30—4 p.m.
Wait Chapel
Students will meet with student advisers to be seated together in Wait Chapel. Attendance is required.

New Student Convocation
4—5 p.m.
Wait Chapel
This formal ceremony welcomes you into the academic community. It includes an opportunity to reflect on your goals for the WFU journey with President Nathan O. Hatch; Dean of the College Michele Gillespie; Senior Associate Dean for Academic Advising Christy M. Buchanan; and Carty Malaise ’10, Student Representative to the Committee on Orientation and Lower Division Advising. Attendance is required; business casual dress encouraged.

OPCD Open House for Transfer Students
5:15—6:15 p.m.
Reynolda Hall, 230
Transfer students will have the opportunity to connect with career coaches and learn about services the Office of Personal and Career Development has to offer. This program provides a deeper dive into specific resources for transfer students. Attendance is required.

Taste of Winston-Salem
6:30—7:45 p.m.
Parking Lot W-2 near Spry Soccer Stadium and Alumni Hall
Gather with your new friends and try out local food offerings compliments of Winston-Salem businesses. Enjoy live music from the Spirit of the Old Gold and Black marching band and performances by the WF Cheer and Dance teams.

Men’s Soccer Game
7:30—9:30 p.m.
Spry Stadium
Cheer on the nationally-ranked soccer team against Indiana.

The Welcome Concert
10 p.m.—midnight
Manchester Plaza (Rain location: Wait Chapel)
What better way to spend your Friday night than an outdoor concert? Come rock out to the artist you voted for! Sponsored by: Office of the Provost, Residence Life and Housing, Renaissance Student Association (RSA), South Forest Area Council, Student Activities Fee (SAF), Student Government, Student Union, WFU Athletics and University Police.

For more information, please visit DeacWeek.wfu.edu.
Building Community through Diversity & Inclusion
9 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 3 p.m.
During this interactive session, students will engage in activities and discussions that encourage self-awareness and appreciation of the similarities and differences that exist between members of our community. Students will also explore how experiences of inclusion and exclusion impact one’s sense of belonging and connection. They will also practice using empathy as a tool for building meaningful relationships and a stronger sense of community with their peers. Schedule will be provided by RAs. Non-residential and transfer students will receive scheduling information by email by Friday, August 24. Attendance is required.

PREPARE Talks
9 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 3 p.m.
Trained student facilitators will engage small groups in an interactive program to discuss Wake Forest’s culture of respect committed to preventing incidents of sexual misconduct. Strategies will be discussed for effectively caring for each other through healthy relationships and awareness of resources. Schedule will be provided by RAs. Non-residential and transfer students will receive scheduling information by email by Friday, August 24. Attendance is required.

“Wake World”
9 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 3 p.m.
Scales Fine Arts Center, Mainstage Theatre
An entertaining and thought-provoking theatrical snapshot of college life created and performed by members of the Department of Theatre and Dance. Schedule will be provided by RAs. Non-residential and transfer students will receive scheduling information by email by Friday, August 24. Attendance is required.

Wellbeing at Wake
9 a.m., 10:30 a.m., 1:30 p.m. and 3 p.m.
This interactive session is designed to aid students in learning skills to understand and navigate the local campus landscape as it relates to wellbeing, alcohol, drugs and safety. Through games, videos and a discussion from the experts (current Demon Deacons), students will discover resources for a successful campus life. Schedule and locations provided by RAs. Non-residential and transfer students will receive scheduling information by email by Friday, August 24. Attendance is required.

Lunch On Your Own
12—1:15 p.m.
Lunch Options and Locations: Chick-fil-A, Einstein’s, Forest Greens, The Fresh Food Company (The Pit), Hilltop Market, Hissho Sushi, Moe’s, POD Market at North, Shorty’s, Starbucks (ZSR & North Dining), Subway & POD, Village Juice, Zick’s and 336 Market. Please see the New Deac Week app for the hours of operation for each location.

Dinner with Advising Group or On Your Own
5:30—8 p.m.
Some of you will dine with academic and student advisers tonight; others will have dinner with your advising group on Sunday, September 2, 9 or 16. Advisers will have provided information about scheduling at the group meeting earlier this week. At this dinner gathering, you can get to know each other in a casual setting and discuss transitioning to Wake Forest University or other topics. Attendance at your advising group dinner is required at the time it is scheduled.

Saturday Nite Live
9:30 p.m.—1 a.m.
On Jasper Memory Lane (South Campus)
The Office of Residence Life and Housing invite you to participate in this annual block party-style event. Food trucks and games will be stationed outside of South Campus residence halls with free food. All new students will be welcome, so you are encouraged to walk around and make some new friends from different buildings. Prizes will be given away throughout the night with a grand prize at the end of the evening.
The congregation of Wake Forest Baptist Church
Wait Chapel
students will receive scheduling information by email important to Wake Forest. Non-residential and transfer complete one of two national surveys about student quiz regarding rules, expectations, honor and student this session, you will be required to complete an online behavior in various aspects of student life. Following regarding the Honor Code and responsible and safe meetings facilitated by RAs, you will explore case student conduct at Wake Forest. Through small group Learn about the Honor Code and expectations regarding Location provided by RAs
9—10:45 a.m.
Wake Forest: A Tradition of Honor and Integrity
7—9 p.m.
Mindful Mornings
11 a.m.—noon
Scales Fine Arts Center, Breezeaway
Start your day with an exploration of a third set of simple contemplative practices that will help you achieve academic and personal wellbeing in college and beyond.
Catholic Mass
11:30 a.m.—12:30 p.m.
Benson University Center, Pugh Auditorium
All are welcome.
Project Wake: Conversations on Character
1:30—3 p.m.
Meet with your Project Wake reading discussion group! Students who registered should follow the instructions sent by email prior to arrival.
Religious Life Meet and Greet
2:15—4:15 p.m.
Benson University Center, Third Floor Lounge
Meet chaplains, campus ministers, religious life leaders and students to learn about religious and spiritual opportunities at Wake Forest.
Pitstop
4:30—6:30 p.m.
Location will be determined by your student adviser
First-year students are asked to grab dinner with their student advisers at one of the on-campus venues ("The Pit," North Campus Dining, etc.) so that they can ask last-minute questions before the first day of class. Attendance is required.
Seating for Spirit of Wake Forest
6:30—7 p.m.
Wait Chapel
Students will meet with student advisers to be seated together in Wait Chapel. Attendance is required.
Spirit of Wake Forest
7—9 p.m.
Wait Chapel
Learn about Wake Forest traditions — Wake All Night, Hit the Bricks, Homecoming, Lovefeast, MLK Celebration, Project Pumpkin, Rolling the Quad, South Campus Area Councils, Springfest and Wake 'N Shake — as student leaders introduce you to the Spirit of Wake Forest. Attendance is required.
Deacs Get Up & Go!
10 p.m.—midnight
See Guidebook for specific details regarding activity & locations
Come join classmates for a run on the campus trails or a morning yoga, spin cycle or group exercise class.
International Students’ Kickoff Picnic
5—6 p.m.
Davis Field across from Davis Residence Hall (Rain location: Scales Fine Arts Center, Lower Lobby)
Sponsored by International Students and Scholar Services
School of Business Information Session for Students
6—7 p.m.
Farrell Hall, Broyhill Auditorium, Lower Level
Students interested in possible study in the School of Business are strongly encouraged to attend. Session will be led by a member of the Undergraduate Integrative Student Services team, WFU School of Business.
MONDAY, AUGUST 27, CLASSES BEGIN!
UNITY Project
10 a.m.—noon, 3—5 p.m.
ZSR Library Circle
UNITY is an interactive public art project that examines how labels both help and hinder our ability to build and live in community. This canopy of interconnectedness celebrates the uniqueness of individuals and raises awareness of how labels impact our perception of and interactions with the world. Come with a friend, your hallmates or by yourself to contribute your unique identity to the display!
WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 29
Faculty House Calls
6—7 p.m.
First-year Residence Halls
Sponsored by the Office of Residence Life and Housing. Faculty members will visit the residence halls to welcome you to Wake Forest! Plan to be in your room to meet professors and learn firsthand about the teacher–scholar model at Wake Forest.
FRIDAY, AUGUST 31
Z. Smith Reynolds Library Open House
5—7 p.m.
Z. Smith Reynolds Library
ZSR Library invites the class of 2022 to a special open house, which will include a tour of the library. Have fun learning about library resources and services available to you through a series interactive games and activities! Light refreshments will be provided.
Outbreak@ZSR
7:30—9 p.m.
Z. Smith Reynolds Library
Join a group of humans as they band together in an attempt to ward off the zombie horde roaming through the 170,000 square feet of the ZSR Library. Survival gear will be provided! Sponsored by the Z. Smith Reynolds Library and the WFU Student Activities Fund.
SUNDAY, SEPT. 2, SEPT. 9 OR SEPT. 16
Dinner with Advising Group
6–8 p.m.
Location provided by your adviser

Some students’ advising group dinner is scheduled for September 2, 9 or 16. At this gathering, you can get to know each other in a casual setting and discuss transitioning to Wake Forest University or other topics. Attendance at your advising group dinner is required at the time it is scheduled.

WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5
Student Involvement Fair
3:30–8 p.m.
Manchester Plaza (Rain date: Thursday, Sept. 6, 3–5 p.m.)

Meet students, student leaders and local nonprofit agency representatives. Learn more about getting involved in student organizations on campus as well as opportunities in the local Winston-Salem community.

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 8
WAKE THE DEMONS! New Student Tailgate
9:30—11:30 a.m.
BB&T Field

Join your new classmates at the first football home game when Wake Forest plays Towson. Prior to the game you will join us at the Joel Coliseum for free food, music, a Wake The Demons t-shirt and getting into the Wake Forest spirit to cheer the Demon Deacons to victory. Enjoy games, music and lots of fun prizes. You will storm the field as a class and be a part of the pre-game excitement before kickoff. Transportation will be provided. Details about time and place to meet will be available from RAs prior to game day. Attendance highly encouraged — GO DEACS! Kickoff against Towson is at noon (BB&T Field).

FIRST SEMESTER CHECK-INS
The two check-ins listed below provide an important opportunity for you to reflect and dialogue with your peers on critical areas of first-year experience. Attendance and short reflections required of all first-year students; attendance will be taken.

Check-in #1
September 9—20
Step Up: Becoming an Active Bystander
Demon Deacons look out for each other. This session will teach students about the variety of situations they may encounter on a college campus and how best to intervene safely and effectively. In addition, this session will instill a sense of responsibility for the safety and wellbeing of all members of the WFU community and beyond. You are expected to attend a Step Up: Becoming an Active Bystander session. You will be responsible for scheduling and completing the session on your own. In the case of a university-approved conflict, it is your responsibility to attend a session with an alternate group at a different time.

Check-In #2
September 23—September 29
Academic Success Event (with SAs)
Your student adviser will provide you with more information regarding your group meeting time and location.

MAKING OF A DEMON DEACON
On Thursday, August 23, between 9:30 and 10 a.m., new students gather in the designated student area on Hearn Plaza inside the painted arc and in front of the stage. Upon entering this area, students obtain a Wake Forest pin from a student leader standing on the arc. Parents and family members please gather in a horseshoe ring just behind the painted arc, around the students.

Program
Musical Performance
Welcome
Daniel Reeves (’19)
Student Government President
Remarks
Provost Rogan Kersh (’86)
Pinning Ceremony
Singing of the Alma Mater
Closing Remarks
Rolling the Quad
Participate in a favorite Wake Forest tradition with your fellow Demon Deacons!

*Rain Plan: Continental Breakfast in Benson University Center, Room 401, from 8:30 a.m. until 9:30 a.m. At 10 a.m., parents and families ONLY head to Wait Chapel for The Spirit of Wake Forest for Parents and families to start at 10:15 a.m.

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST,
THINE IS A NOBLE NAME;
THINE IS A GLORIOUS FAME,
CONSTANT AND TRUE.
WE GIVE THEE OF OUR PRAISE,
ADORÉ THINE ANCIENT DAYS,
SING THEE OUR HUMBLE LAYS,

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST,
MYSTIC THY NAME TO CHEER;
BE THOU OUR GUARDIAN NEAR FORE’ER AND AYE.
WE BOW BEFORE THY SHRINE,
THY BROW WITH BAYS ENTWINED,
ALL HONOR NOW BE THINE,
MOTHER, TODAY.

BY GEORGE W. PASCHAL, CLASS OF 1892 (THURINGIAN FOLK SONG)
FRIDAY, SEPT. 28—SUNDAY, SEPT. 30
Family Weekend
Mark your calendars and plan to join your Wake student for an action-packed weekend filled with activities and FUN for all. Learn about summer internships, visit the Reynolda House Museum of American Art, attend the student a cappella showcase, Family Weekend Tailgate, Deacs vs. Syracuse football game, visit several of the open houses offered throughout the weekend, learn the history of Wake Forest, enjoy Sunday Brunch and so much more. For information, visit familyweekend.wfu.edu or contact Kathy Arnett in the Office of Student Engagement at arnettkc@wfu.edu.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3
Major/Minor Fair
3—5 p.m.
Benson University Center, 401
The Major/Minor Fair is a great chance to learn about requirements and opportunities available in various majors and minors from faculty and student representatives.

OCTOBER 22—NOVEMBER 2
Advising for Spring Registration
Be sure to schedule (and attend!) a meeting with your adviser during this period. The advising meeting provides a wonderful opportunity to update your adviser about how your semester is going and to get your adviser’s advice about your current work as well as courses for spring semester. And, as another detail … you must attend this meeting in order to get the Personal Identification Number (PIN) you will need to register for spring semester courses. Attendance required!

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 3
Homecoming
Attend homecoming events. For more information, visit homecoming.wfu.edu.