PARENTS & FAMILIES SESSION

BLOCK 2 | 1:15-2:15 P.M.

Concurrent Sessions:

Parents and families are highly encouraged to attend one of these important sessions.

• We're in This Together: Preventing and Responding to High-Risk Behaviors on Campus Benson University Center, 401A/D

This session will provide parents and families with information regarding what they can do to help support their students in making safe and healthy decisions. Facilitated by staff from the Office of Wellbeing, Student Health Service and the Safe Office, this session will include a review of campus resources, programs and policies related to alcohol and substance use, healthy relationships and sexual misconduct prevention.

• Student Engagement Opportunities / Fraternity and Sorority Life Benson University Center, Pugh Auditorium

Organizational involvement is a key aspect in helping students to find their sense of belonging. Members of the Office of Student Engagement will discuss general advice, specific circumstances and standards students need to understand in order to best take advantage of the opportunities the more than 175 student organizations and 25 fraternities and sororities at Wake Forest offer. Discussion will include the many ways in which the Office of Student Engagement and campus partners work to create a safe and supportive social environment while "Helping Every Deacon Find Their Place."

• Time Management, Tutoring, Accommodations, Oh My! Benson University Center, Room 409

Once students move onto campus as first-year students, they are often expected to be able to advocate for themselves, tap into campus resources and navigate the newly discovered world of college life and independence. This session is designed to help parents and families understand how resources available at the Learning Assistance Center and Disability Services can help all students address key components of academic success. We will cover tutoring, peer mentoring, academic coaching and counseling, and other essential tools for success. Additionally, we will discuss the process of requesting and implementing reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities.

• Staying Safe at Wake – Campus Safety Benson University Center, Room 410

Crime and safety will always be a concern for parents when sending their children off to college. Everyone must work collaboratively to keep our community safe. Parents and families will learn about services and resources protecting our Wake Forest University campus community. Representatives from the Office of the Dean of Students and University Police will be present to help you understand our community standards and how they support student safety and wellbeing.

FALL IN THE FOREST

THE FIRST WEEK OF CLASSES AND BEYOND

New students cannot learn everything about what it takes to have a successful college experience in a few days before the semester even starts. Therefore, new student orientation programming continues through the fall. In this way, you can continue to learn while you are experiencing what it is actually like to be a student at Wake Forest. Several fall semester orientation events are required. Please be sure these interesting and important programs are on your calendar!

MONDAY, AUG. 26, CLASSES BEGIN!

International Students' Welcome Picnic
5-6 p.m.
Davis Field across from Davis Residence Hall (Rain location: Scales Fine Arts Center, Lower Lobby)

Sponsored by International Student and Scholar Services.

School of Business Information Session for Students 6-7 p.m. Farrell Hall, Broyhill Auditorium, Lower Level

Students interested in possible study in the school of business are strongly encouraged to attend. Session will be led by a member of the Undergraduate Integrative Student Services team, Wake Forest University School of Business.

WEDNESDAY, AUG. 28

Faculty House Calls
6-7 p.m.
First-Year Residence Halls

Sponsored by Residence Life and Housing. Faculty members will visit the residence halls to welcome you to Wake Forest! Plan to be in your room to meet professors and learn firsthand about the teacher-scholar model at Wake Forest.

FRIDAY, AUG. 30

WAKE THE DEMONS! Football Game & New Student Tailgate
5-8 p.m.
BB&T Field

Join your new classmates at the first football home game when Wake Forest plays Utah State. Prior to the game, you will join us outside the coliseum for free food, music and a Wake the Demons T-shirt. We'll get you into the Wake Forest spirit to cheer the Demon Deacons on to victory. Enjoy games, music and lots of fun prizes. You will storm the field as a class and be a part of the pre-game excitement before kickoff. Transportation will be provided. Details about time and place to meet will be available from RAs prior to game day. Attendance highly encouraged — GO DEACs!

SATURDAY, AUG. 31

Outbreak@ZSR

FIRST SEMESTER CHECK-INS

The two check-ins listed below provide an important opportunity for you to reflect and dialogue with your peers on critical areas of first-year experience. Attendance and short reflections required of all first-year students; attendance will be taken.

Check-In #1

Sept. 9-27

Step Up: Becoming an Active Bystander (with RAs)

Demon Deacons look out for each other. This session will teach students about the variety of situations they may encounter on a college campus and how best to intervene safely and effectively. In addition, this session will instill a sense of responsibility for the safety and wellbeing of all members of the Wake Forest community and beyond. You are expected to attend a Step Up: Becoming an Active Bystander session. You will be responsible for scheduling and completing the session on your own. In the case of a university-approved conflict, it is your responsibility to attend a session with an alternate group at a different time.

Check-In #2

Sept. 27-Oct. 4

Academic Success Event (with student advisers)

Your student adviser will provide you with more information regarding your group meeting time and location.

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST,
THINE IS A NOBLE NAME;
THINE IS A GLORIOUS FAME,
CONSTANT AND TRUE.
WE GIVE THEE OF OUR PRAISE,
ADORE THINE ANCIENT DAYS,
SING THEE OUR HUMBLE LAYS,

MOTHER, SO DEAR

DEAR OLD WAKE FOREST,
MYSTIC THY NAME TO CHEER;
BE THOU OUR GUARDIAN NEAR FORE'ER AND AYE.
WE BOW BEFORE THY SHRINE,
THY BROW WITH BAYS ENTWINE,
ALL HONOR NOW BE THINE,
MOTHER, TODAY.

BY GEORGE W. PASCHAL, CLASS OF 1892 (THURINGIAN FOLK SONG)

FRIDAY, SEPT. 20

Homecoming

7:30-9 p.m.

Z. Smith Reynolds Library

Attend homecoming events. For more information, visit homecoming.wfu.edu.

WEDNESDAY, OCT. 2

Major/Minor Fair

3-5 p.m.

Benson University Center, Room 401

The Major/Minor Fair is a great chance to learn about requirements and opportunities available in various majors and minors from faculty and student representatives of departments and programs.

TUESDAY, OCT. 22-SATURDAY, NOV. 2

Advising for Spring Registration

3-5 p.m.

Benson University Center, Room 401

Be sure to schedule (and attend!) a meeting with your adviser during this period. The advising meeting provides a wonderful opportunity to update your adviser about how your semester is going and to get your adviser's advice about your current work as well as courses for spring semester. And, as another detail ... you must attend this meeting in order to get the Personal Identification Number (PIN) you will need to register for spring semester courses. Attendance is required!

FRIDAY, NOV. 1-SUNDAY, NOV. 3

Family Weekend

Mark your calendars and plan to join your Wake student for an action-packed weekend filled with activities and FUN for all. Learn about summer internships, visit the Reynolda House Museum of American Art, attend the student cappella showcase, drop by the Family Weekend Tailgate and attend the Deacs vs. NC State football game. You can also visit several of the open houses offered throughout the weekend, learn the history of Wake Forest, enjoy Sunday brunch and so much more. For information, visit familyweekend.wfu.edu or contact Kathy Arnett in the Office of Student Engagement at arnettkc@wfu.edu.
