PROVOST'S FUND FOR FACULTY TRAVEL – The College, Library and Professional Schools

The Provost's Fund for Faculty Travel provides supplementary travel support for faculty participating in an academic conference or another select professional event by presenting or discussing a paper/film/project or chairing a session. The department chair or dean may recommend use of these funds for non-conference research related travel. Awards from the Provost Fund for Faculty Travel are available to all full time faculty. Approval by the department chair or dean is required. Please see Provost's website for additional information.

To ensure funding is available, please submit this completed form to Barbara Meredith in the Provost Office by March 1 of the academic year. Faculty will be notified by March 15th if funding is not available. Submissions received after March 1 will be subject to funding availability.
