Submitting a Reimbursement Expense Report—Quick Guide

Required Information	Elements to Include
Receipts	<ul> <li>Regardless of transaction type, all receipts must include:         <ul> <li>Transaction Date</li> <li>Merchant/Supplier Name</li> <li>Detail of items purchased or services provided</li> <li>Form of payment used (e.g., cash, check, or credit card)</li> <li>Amount</li> <li>Proof of Payment</li> </ul> </li> <li>Receipts should be submitted as a reimbursement on an expense report</li> <li>Both detailed and summary receipts are required</li> </ul>
Proof of Payment	This should be a credit card statement or invoice showing a zero balance with limited credit card number information

NOTE: All receipts for University Pcard transactions should be submitted with the Pcard transaction in Workday and not as a reimbursement line.

Documentation Due Dates

For timely reimbursement by Accounts Payable, please provide documentation b by the due dates listed below.

Document Type	Due Dates
Travel Documentation	• Due 60 days from date expense is incurred or 30 days from date of return from travel, whichever is later
Non-Travel Documentation (includes local meals)	• Due 60 days from date expense is incurred
Personal Credit Card Expense	<ul> <li>Due 60 days from date expense is incurred or 30 days from date of return from travel, whichever is later.</li> <li>Reimbursement for travel expenses when an employee is eligible for a University Pcard, will not be reimbursed until after the trip and all other expenses can be submitted for the trip.</li> </ul>

Financial Services Quick Guide Library finance.wfu.edu

Responsible Unit: Accounts Payable

Additional Assistance: ap@wfu.edu

What is it?

A guide on how University faculty, staff and students should submit expense reimbursement requests.

Why it is Necessary

The items listed are necessary to:

- Provide your reimbursement in a timely fashion.
- Reduce follow-up time by AP staff for gathering missing or incomplete information.
- Potentially expedite the payment process.