

Campus Life Demographic Question Decision Chart

This diagram helps explain how to consider demographic questions in your surveys and other assessment projects.

*Campus Life has created a demographics project that allows survey responses to be connected to University demographic information without having to ask those in your survey. Use of this project does not provide anonymity for respondents to your surveys.