

Calling All Quarantined Students!!

- Are you bored in quarantine?
- Are you wondering how you can spend your time when you aren't studying or attending class virtually?
- Want to get a jump start on your career search and networking?
- Or just want a friendly face/voice/conversation?

The Office of Alumni Engagement and Wake Washington want to help match you with an alumnus, anywhere around the country (or even around the world) to spend an hour by phone or Zoom to talk with you about their career, networking, your job search, life after college, or pretty much anything else that you want to discuss.

There are no pre-requisites or hoops to jump through – we want to make this easy and fun for you – and for our alumni!

Interested? Just go to: <https://tinyurl.com/wfualumniconnect> and let us know. We will take it from there!

Or you can email Jennifer Richwine at richwjl@wfu.edu or Ryan DuRant at ryanndurant@gmail.com with questions.
