When the letter is received by the parent, then the parent must send a copy to the Student Financial Aid office along with the student’s full name and WFU ID#.

Please see the reverse side for additional questions and information.

The best way to verify income is by using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool that is part of FAFSA on the Web at FAFSA.gov. In most cases, no further documentation is needed to verify 2018 income information that was transferred into the student’s FAFSA using the IRS DRT if that information was not changed by the FAFSA filer.

Check the box(s) that applies:

_____ The parents have used the IRS DRT in FAFSA on the Web to transfer 2018 IRS income tax return information into the student’s FAFSA.

_____ The parents have not yet used the IRS DRT in FAFSA on the Web, but will use the tool to transfer 2018 IRS income tax return information into the student’s FAFSA.

_____ The parents are unable or choose not to use the IRS DRT in FAFSA on the Web, and instead will provide the school with a 2018 IRS Tax Return Transcript(s).

_____ Since the parents filed separate 2018 IRS income tax returns, the IRS DRT cannot be used. The 2018 IRS Tax Return Transcript(s) will be provided for each.

_____ The student has used the IRS DRT in FAFSA on the Web to transfer 2018 IRS income tax return information into the student’s FAFSA.

_____ The student is unable or chooses not to use the IRS Data Retrieval Tool and will provide a 2018 IRS Tax Return Transcript.

Important Information About Federal Verification

Your federal student aid application (FAFSA) has been selected by the U.S. Department of Education for verification. For dependent students, information to be verified relates to the student and to his/her parent(s). Please note carefully the documentation required to verify this information listed below. You must complete and return the Verification Worksheet and all other required documentation to avoid cancellation of your Federal Student Aid.

For 2020-2021, information to be verified includes number of household members; number of household members (excluding parents) who will be enrolled at least half-time in a degree, diploma, or certificate program at a postsecondary educational institution any time between July 1, 2020, and June 30, 2021. For 2018 federal income tax return filers, additional income-related information to be verified includes adjusted gross income, U.S. income tax paid, untaxed IRA distributions, untaxed pensions, education credits, IRA deductions, and tax-exempt interest income. Income earned from work must be verified for non-filers of U.S. income tax returns.

The best way to verify income is by using the IRS Data Retrieval Tool (IRS DRT) that is part of FAFSA on the Web at FAFSA.gov. In most cases, no further documentation is needed to verify 2018 income information that was transferred into the student’s FAFSA using the IRS DRT if that information was not changed by the FAFSA filer.

For Federal Pell Grant eligible students whose application has been selected for verification, verification must be completed by a deadline published annually in the Federal Register (generally in September following the academic year), or no later than 180 days after the last day of enrollment during the academic year, whichever date comes first. Verification must be completed for campus-based (Federal Supplemental Educational Opportunity Grants (SEOG) and Federal Work-Study) and Federal Direct Loan eligible students by the last day of enrollment during the academic year. Failure to complete verification will result in cancelation of Federal Student Aid.

If a FAFSA transaction is selected for verification after an award has already been made and/or disbursed and requested verification documents are not provided, any undisbursed award will be canceled. No additional federal funds will be disbursed until verification has been completed.

If verification causes a change in the student’s eligibility for Federal Student Aid funds, the student will be notified via e-mail that his or her award has been modified. The student may review his modified financial aid award by accessing his financial aid record through the Wake Information Network.
