

Family Size and Number in College Clarification (Dependent Students)

2026-27

Your application for need-based financial aid contains incomplete, inconsistent, and/or unclear family information. Please complete the table below, using the information that was correct on the date your FAFSA® was submitted, even if the data would be different today, and return this form to finaid@wfu.edu. We appreciate your careful attention and prompt reply.

The instructions below correspond to the FAFSA® definition of family size and number in college.

In the chart below include the Full Name, Age, and Relationship of:

- Self
- Legal Parent(s): Biological/adoptive, or as determined by the state.
  - If legal parents are married, include both parents.
  - If legal parents are unmarried and live together, include both parents.
  - If legal parents are unmarried and do not live together, include only the parent who provides the greater portion of the student's financial support (even if the student does not live with that parent). If that legal parent has remarried, also include his/her spouse (the student's stepparent).
  - If legal parents are divorced or separated, include only the parent who provides the greater portion of the student's financial support (even if the student does not live with that parent). If that legal parent has remarried, also include his/her spouse (the student's stepparent).
  - If legal parent is widowed and not remarried, include only that parent.
  - If legal parent was widowed and has remarried, also include his/her spouse (the student's stepparent).
- Children
  - For the FAFSA® parent(s) that you have listed in the chart below, include their dependent children and stepchildren (even if they live apart because of college enrollment, illness, education, business, vacation, military service, juvenile detention, or other circumstances), if your FAFSA® parent(s) will provide more than half of their support between July 1, 2026 and June 30, 2027.
- Other People only if they now live with your FAFSA® parent(s) and your FAFSA® parent(s) will provide more than half of their support between July 1, 2026 and June 30, 2027.

List all members of your FAFSA® family below, based on the definitions above. In addition, include the Name of College, Undergraduate/Graduate Level, and Half-Time/Full-Time status for those siblings and other household members (excluding parents) attending at least half-time during 2026-27 (any time between July 1, 2026 and June 30, 2027) in a program leading to a degree, diploma, or certificate, at an eligible postsecondary institution. (An eligible postsecondary institution has a federal school code and is eligible for participation in any of the Federal Student Aid programs. Do not include college information for siblings and other household members attending U.S. military service academies.) List all FAFSA® family members but include college information only for siblings and other household members (excluding parents). If additional space is needed, please continue on the back of the form.
