

Acceptance Rates to Medical School, 1996-2000

Comparison of WFU Success with National Pool Medical School Students (% Accepted)

Medical School Matriculations, 1996-2000

Since 1988, Wake Forest students have been accepted by 75 of the 125 allopathic medical schools in the United States. 73.9% of those entering allopathic medical schools entered an institution in their home state. 46.2% of Wake Forest students entering Wake Forest University School of Medicine were from outside North Carolina. The top five institutions accepting Wake Forest students were, in order; WFU (53.8% in-state), UNC (95.9% in-state), ECU (100% in-state), MCG (100% in-state), and MUSC (95.8% in-state).

State	Medical School	State	Medical School
Alabama	Alabama at Birmingham	New York	Columbia
	South Alabama		Mount Sinai
Arkansas	Arkansas		New York Medical
Connecticut	Connecticut		SUNY - Brooklyn
	Yale		SUNY - Buffalo
DC	Georgetown		SUNY - Syracuse
	George Washington	North Carolina	Duke
	Howard		ECU
Florida	Florida		UNC
	Miami		WFU
	South Florida	Ohio	Case Western Reserve
Georgia	Emory		Cincinnati
	MCG		Northeastern Ohio
	Mercer		Ohio State
	Morehouse		Ohio at Toledo
Hawaii	Hawaii		Wright State
Illinois	Rush	Oklahoma	Oklahoma
	Southern Illinois	Pennsylvania	MCP - Hahnemann
Indiana	Indiana		Penn
Kansas	Kansas		Penn State
Kentucky	Kentucky		Pittsburgh
	Louisville		Temple
Louisiana	LSO - NO	South Carolina	MUSC
	LSU - Shreveport		S. Carolina
	Tulane	Tennessee	Meharry
Massachusetts	Boston		Tennessee
	Harvard		Vanderbilt
Maryland	Johns Hopkins	Texas	Baylor
	Maryland		UT - Houston
	Uniformed Services		UT - San Antonio
Missouri	Missouri - Columbia		UT - Southwestern
	Washington University	Virginia	Eastern Virginia
Mississippi	Mississippi		MCV
Nebraska	Nebraska		UVA
New Jersey	UMDNJ	W. Virginia	Marshall
	RW Johnson		W. Virginia
		Wisconsin	MCW
			Wisconsin