Winter Break 2021-2022

Tips for loading your vehicle to go home:

- To expedite the loading process, packing your personal items prior to moving your vehicle to your Resident Hall to load will save time.

- Using headlights and emergency flashers while parked will indicate you are actively loading your vehicle.

- Special use parking spaces, such as fire lanes, handicapped or reserved spaces should be avoided to ensure they are available for their designated purpose.

- Vehicles with off-campus permits and vehicles parked in faculty/staff lots will be given 1-hour to load your vehicle. If there is no activity around the vehicle after 1-hour, the vehicle is subject to being cited.

Resident Students:

- Resident upperclassmen that have a registered vehicle and are not driving home for the break should leave vehicles parked in Lots R1, R2 or Q.

Sophomore Students:

- Sophomore students can relocate vehicles to campus after 4:00 p.m. Friday, December 10 and park in lots R1, R2 or Q. If a vehicle needs to be relocated to campus prior to 4:00 p.m. Friday, December 10, please email Transportation and Parking Services at parking@wfu.edu. Do not bring your vehicle on campus to park for break until you are physically leaving campus.

- Vehicles must be relocated back to the sophomore student lot by Monday, January 10, at 8:00 a.m.
First-Year Students:

- First-year students leaving their vehicle during winter break can relocate vehicles from parking lot Z5 to the Reynolda Campus and park in Lot J. Vehicles can begin to be relocated to campus on Friday, December 10 after 4:00 p.m. Do not bring your vehicle on campus to park for break until you are physically leaving campus. If you need to relocate your vehicle to campus prior to Friday, December 10, please email Transportation and Parking Services at parking@wfu.edu.

- Vehicles must be relocated back to the Lot Z5 by Monday, January 10 at 8:00 a.m.
