FROM THE GROUND UP

A dance with Wake Forest University Facilities & Campus Services
Featuring Custodial, Maintenance & Utilities, Landscaping, Construction and Waste Reduction employees

Directed by FORK LIFT DANCEWORKS
PRODUCERS’ NOTE

In January of 2017, the two of us met the amazing Allison Orr (WFU ‘93), Artistic Director of Forklift Danceworks, and began conversations that eventually led to From the Ground Up, the original dance piece you’re about to see. Throughout this more than two and a half year long collaboration, Allison and her colleagues Krissie Marty and Gretchen LaMotte have visited campus multiple times, meeting and working alongside our incredible facilities team to find out what they do every day to make this campus work. They have built relationships and creative ideas, probed every corner of campus, and engaged with classes taught by David Phillips (Humanities), Ivan Weiss (Journalism), and the two of us (Theatre and Dance).

The Facilities workers have been wonderfully kind, patient, and open with all of us who have spent time job-shadowing and asking for their attention and expertise. And their creativity has imbued From the Ground Up with their energy, humor, and dedicated hard work. VP of Facilities John Shenette and his remarkable team-leaders, especially the tireless Stephanie Poskin and Jim Coffey, have been incredibly generous partners as we have built this large-scale 70+ person performance, dealing with the complexities of an outdoor dance/theatre production like seasoned pros. We couldn’t have asked for better collaborators than the people in Facilities. Nor could we have put this together without the support of our sponsors--perhaps most crucially the Interdisciplinary Performance and the Liberal Arts Center at Wake Forest University (IPLACe).

Over the past 8 years, IPLACe has supported nearly 600 separate events, bringing together partners from almost every part of campus for conversations about the many things we at Wake Forest care about--and From the Ground Up has been our biggest, most sprawling project yet. A collaboration between Facilities, Music, Theatre, Dance, Communication, Humanities, and of course Forklift Danceworks, it has stretched us all in new directions.

We are excited that the time has come to share what Forklift has made with this big, diverse, creative crew, and we hope this production helps our community see and appreciate more fully the work and workers who make this gorgeous campus function so beautifully. Thanks for coming and celebrating these extraordinary people with us! We are so glad you’re here.

--Cindy Gendrich (Professor of Theatre, Director of IPLACe) and Christina Soriano (Associate Professor of Dance and Associate Provost for the Arts)
Strobe lighting and alarm sound effects will be used in the show.

ARTISTIC TEAM

Allison Orr, Founder and Artistic Director of Forklift Danceworks, creates award-winning choreography with unlikely performers, from sanitation workers to Venetian gondoliers. Inspired by the beauty and virtuosity in the movement of labor, Allison’s dances feature the often-overlooked work that sustains our everyday lives. Building on her background in anthropology and social work, over the past 20 years Allison has honed a methodology of ethnographic choreography that engages community members as coauthors and performers in the creation of large-scale civic spectacles. Named a 2018 USA Doris Duke USA Artist Fellow and 2019 Dance/USA Artist Fellow in Social Change, Allison is currently a Distinguished Fellow in the College of Environment at Wesleyan University. She is also a Wake Forest alumna who graduated in 1993 with a BA in Anthropology and a Minor in Women’s Studies.

Krissie Marty, Associate Artistic Director & Community Collaborations Director of Forklift Danceworks, engages working people in creating dances that ask audiences to reconsider their relationship to labor and laboring bodies. Krissie directed RE Source, a collaboration with the employees of the Goodwill Resource Center, and she has co-directed Served, a dance for Williams College
Dining Services staff; Givens Swims, Dove Springs Swims, Bartholomew Swims, PowerUP!, Play Ball Downs Field, Afoot: A Marching Band Extravaganza, and
The Trees of Govalle. Her choreography has been performed at the Kennedy Center, Stratford Circus in London, and Jacob’s Pillow Dance Festival. Krissie has worked with the Liz Lerman Dance Exchange, Big Art Group (NYC), Imagination
Stage (DC), Jacob’s Pillow Curriculum in Motion, and Wolf Trap Institute for Early Learning Through the Arts.
Gretchen LaMotte, Assistant Choreographer for Forklift Danceworks, works in the realms of performance making and community action. She received a BA in Science in Society from Wesleyan University with concentrations in Psychology and Feminist, Gender, & Sexuality Studies and a Certificate in Environmental Studies. At Wesleyan’s Center for the Arts, Gretchen worked for the Creative Campus Initiative, Zilkha Gallery, and the Institute for Curatorial Practice in Performance. With Forklift, she has collaborated on The Artist in the City (2016), Bartholomew Swims (2017), Served — Williams College (2018), Dove Springs Swims (2018), and Givens Swims (2019).

Stephen Pruitt, Production and Lighting Designer is a photographer, visual artist, and designer based in Austin, TX. He is the resident designer for Forklift Danceworks, Kathy Dunn Hamrick Dance and Tapestry Dance Company; a company member with Austin’s Rude Mechs, and artistic director of Catastrophe Theory Arts. He has collaborated with Forklift Danceworks on over a dozen productions since The Trash Project and has won several awards for his Forklift designs. His work can be seen at www.fluxiondesigns.com

Graham Reynolds, Composer for Forklift Danceworks, performs & records music for film, theater, dance, rock clubs & concert halls with collaborators ranging from Richard Linklater & Jack Black to DJ Spooky & Ballet Austin. Called “the quintessential modern composer” by the London Independent, this is Reynolds’ tenth project with Forklift Danceworks. Graham received the Creative Capital Award for his opera, “Pancho Villa From a Safe Distance”, currently touring internationally. He most recently scored the Cate Blanchett film “Where’d You Go, Bernadette?” released in theaters across the country this summer. More at grahamreynolds.com

Heather Tucek, Production Assistant, has been working in Texas theatre for around 15 years, and has been with Forklift Danceworks since 2009 when they premiered “The Trash Project.” She has since moved on to work in feature film and commercial shoots, teaches special education at her local elementary school, and is an environmental educator with her own company. In her spare time, she is active with her local TNR (trap, neuter, release) organization, helping the stray cat community in her neighborhood.

Margo Unruh, Production Assistant, has worked with Forklift Danceworks on several productions including The Trash Project, Power Up!, and Givens Swims. She holds a degree in Theatre Production & Design from Pennsylvania State University and spent several years in New York City working as a master electrician for The Public Theater. Margo works with youth theatre in various cities and enjoys the community outreach & education that Forklift provides. She serves as the Internal Operations Manager at Austin Event Lighting in Austin, Texas and continues to work on community events whenever she can.

MUSICIANS

Jeremy Brunch (Drums) Spanning a wide range of styles, from Latin big band (Grupo Fantasma) to indie rock (What Made Milwaukee Famous), Jeremy has held down the drum throne in Graham Reynolds’ Golden Arm Trio and countless other projects for over two decades. Raised on a hog farm in rural Iowa and trained at the University of North Texas school of music, Jeremy spends his free time in Austin as a personal chef, video editor, and mangler of electronics.

Elizabeth Clendinning (Gamelan) is an Assistant Professor of Music at Wake Forest University where she teaches courses in world and popular music and is the founder and director of the university’s Balinese dance and gamelan ensemble, Gamelan Giri Murti. She is also an active member of transnational Balinese performing arts group Sanggar Manik Galih. Her writing on cultural diversity and teaching has appeared in various journals, including Ethnomusicology; her first book, American Gamelan and the Ethnomusicological Imagination, is forthcoming from the University of Illinois Press.

Jacqui Carrasco (Violin) has enjoyed collaborating with numerous dancers in her performing career, including extended US and international tours with the Mark Morris Dance Group and Irène Hultman Dance, and performances with Brenda Angiel Aerial Dance Company, Helen Simoneau Danse and choreographers Murray Louis and Christina Tsoules Soriano. But she’s equally thrilled to be musically supporting WFU’s Facilities staff in Forklift Danceworks’ “From the Ground Up”! Having taught at WFU since 1999, Ms. Carrasco is currently Associate Chair of the Music Department and performs as the violinist of the Lorena Guillén Tango Ensemble and the new music group Blue Mountain/Forecast Music.

John Daniel Ray (Bass) is a progressive bassist, producer, and composer from Winston-Salem, NC. He graduated from UNC School of the Arts in 2000 after studying classical bass performance. John has gone on to perform and tour all over the world as a sideman with groups such as the Allman Brothers and the Embers, and as a bandleader with his own groups Vintage Astronaut, RKIII, and Solos Unit. John has released 14 albums under his record label Mr. Haircut, and produces a podcast about improvisation, also called Mr. Haircut.

Ali Sakkal (Alto Saxophone) has taught at WFU’s Education Department since 2013 where he mainly focuses on Education Policy and Learning & Mind Sciences. He received a B.M. in Saxophone Performance and taught music in the New York City public school for many years. Musically, he draws from a dynamic blend of disparate influences: Middle Eastern music, the European classical tradition, contemporary jazz, and various funk and groove styles. His educational pursuits have led him to study with Branford Marsalis, Evan Parker, Oliver Lake, John Purcell, Hafez Modirzadeh, Andrew Speight, and Greg Dufford.

Zhané Waye (Violin) is a freshman at Wake Forest who intends to double major in Music and Psychology.

Ruofan Zhou (Violin) from Beijing, China, is a senior majoring in Math and Computer Science and minoring in Music.

Mark Mayberry, Locksmith Manager, has worked at WFU for 15 years and is the “chewing gum” of the lock shop — he holds it all together. In his free time, he enjoys playing golf, bike riding, hiking, and playing with his two German Shepherds.

Tyrone McGill, Custodian, has worked at WFU for 5 years. He spends his free time playing Fortnite and Apex.

Ronald Mitchell, Floor Crew, has been working for WFU for 10 years. Born and raised in Winston-Salem, he enjoys fishing in his free time, his favorite spot being High Rock Lake.

David Moore, Locksmith Technician, has worked at WFU for 8 years and is also the owner and operator of Peter’s Keys, a mobile locksmith service. He is locksmithing all the time and can tell you all about key blanks.

Matt Murray, Rapid Response Floor Crew Supervisor, came to Wake Forest nearly 8 years ago after working in the New York Police Department for many years. Outside of work, he likes to work in his yard and spends time with his wife Susan and their two children.

Jim Mussetter, University Arborist, has worked at WFU for 27 years — since his first internship at Reynolda Gardens. In his free time, he enjoys splitting wood, which he uses to heat his home.

David Norris, Plumber, has worked at WFU for 16 years. David likes to spend his free time outside fishing, hunting, or playing golf.
Andrew Thomas Norton, Grounds, has worked at WFU for 6 years. Outside of work, Andrew farms soybeans and corn.

Benny O’Neal, Carpenter II Foreman, has worked with WFU for over 25 years. As a doorman, he has hung doors all of his life and loves being around his family including his wife Debbie, his two grown kids, and his five grandkids.

Jeremy Payne, HVAC, has been working at WFU for 10 years. Outside of work, he enjoys fishing, playing softball, and spending time with his daughter Ryley.

Chris Priddy, Arborist, has worked at WFU for 7 years. He enjoys hunting, fishing, and spending time with his wife Brittney and their daughter Emma.

Gary Samuels, Custodian, works at Davis Residence Hall and has been at WFU for 32 years. In his free time, Gary likes to play basketball.

Mark Shouse, Fleet, has worked at WFU for 2 years. He likes playing with his granddaughter and rollerskating in his free time.

Jimmy Shupe, Carpenter I, has worked at WFU for 24 years and works with heavy operator equipment. He enjoys spending time with his wife, Jaina, and has three girls and one boy.

Payton Slade, Turf Crew, has been at WFU for 7 years. He is a defending 3-time Fantasy Football champion.

Eric Sloop, Carpenter, has been working at WFU for 6 years. Outside of work, Eric likes to fish.

Cecil Tabor, Maintenance Team 1 Foreman, has worked at WFU for 8 years. In his free time, he likes mountain biking for exercise and drag racing in his Mustang.

Kobak Taylor, Locksmith Technician, loves his team and the people at WFU, where he has worked for 31 years. He has eight grandchildren, loves horses, and referees basketball in his free time.

Sharon Taylor, Custodian, has worked at WFU for 6 years. Outside of work, Sharon likes to spend time with her grandson.

London Thomas, Custodian, has worked at WFU for 5 years. He spends his time outside of work cooking and hanging out with his kids.

Patrick Thomas, Custodian, has worked at WFU for 6 years. He spends his free time hiking with his six kids, one of whom is London.

Darin Thomasson, HVAC, has worked at WFU for 6 years. He plays tennis, loves to cook, and does community service outside of work.

Donna Thorton, Building Coordinator, is the Byrum Welcome Center building coordinator and has worked at WFU for 20 years. Donna spends her free time volunteering with the homeless and spending time with her grandkids.

Mark Tilley, Custodian, has worked at WFU for 6 years. Outside of work, Mark is a photographer.

Ben Venable, Carpenter II, is a jack of all trades and has worked at WFU for 15 years. He was proudly raised on a 700-acre farm working with everything from soybeans to cows and now enjoys spending time with his two and a half year-old daughter.

Brenda Wall, Custodian, is the new kid on the block at Maya Angelou Residence Hall, where she has worked since August. She loves kids; her nieces and nephews are her pride and joy and she is proud to be the favorite aunt.

William Washington, Floor Crew, has been working for WFU for 5 years. He enjoys working with his fellow night crew members. When he is not at work, he enjoys fishing and hanging out with his friends.
Golden Watson, Maintenance Team II, has worked at WFU for 3 years. He loves playing guitar, especially heavy metal.

Cynthia Wilson, Custodian, is the Team Leader for Huffman, Poteat, and Kitchin Residence Halls. She has worked at WFU for 6 years. Outside of work, Cynthia likes to travel.

Mike Woodard, Custodian, currently cleans Polo Residence Hall and has worked at WFU for 19 years. He takes pride in the relationships he has built with students here. Outside of work, he volunteers with his church to deliver food to the homeless. He also enjoys ziplining and parasailing.

PROJECT PARTNERS

ABOUT FORKLIFT DANCEWORKS

Austin-based Forklift Danceworks activates communities through a collaborative creative process. Since 2001, the company has presented over 25 community-based dance projects with a diverse array of partners including six City of Austin Departments—Fire, Power, Sanitation, Police, Forestry and Aquatics. Through performance, the company seeks to create opportunities for deeper understanding of the jobs essential to urban life, more informed civic dialogue, and greater connection between citizens and across communities. Commissioned internationally, the company has created projects in Japan; The Netherlands; Spain; and Italy. The Trash Project, Forklift’s collaboration with Austin’s Sanitation Department, is documented in the award-winning film Trash Dance, available on iTunes and Amazon. On Campus: Dances with College Campus Employees is a touring project with partnering college campuses in Forklift’s collaborative art-making method. From the Ground Up is the second in the series, following Served – Williams College, a dance with Williams College Dining Services. Learn more and join our email list at www.forkliftdanceworks.org

ABOUT IPLACe

The Interdisciplinary Performance and the Liberal Arts Center at Wake Forest University supports projects that combine the performing arts (Music, Theatre, and Dance) with each other and/or with other WFU disciplines, centers, and programs. Using the intense, personal connections created by live performance, the Interdisciplinary PLACe builds on the already high quality of performance work at Wake Forest and invigorates the intellectual and cultural life of the university. IPLACe has helped draw together dozens of constituencies on campus and in our community, funding interdisciplinary performance projects, guest artist visits, commissioned works, panel discussions, receptions, special classroom projects, lectures, research and conference support, and intimate “salons.” Bringing together artists, scholars, students, faculty, and staff from every corner of our campus, IPLACe gives us all a time, a place, and a reason to talk to each other about the things we care about.

ABOUT CAMPUS FACILITIES

Facilities & Campus Services is here to help. From providing resources for special events to problems with heating & cooling to repairing Wake Forest University vehicles, every staff member at Facilities is committed to meeting the campus community’s needs. We hope that our performance made possible by IPLACe and Forklift Danceworks gives this community a glance at the hidden ways in which we strive to make our campus a better place.
SPECIAL THANKS TO OUR FUNDERS

The presentation of Forklift Danceworks was made possible by the New England Foundation for the Arts’ National Dance Project, with lead funding from the Doris Duke Charitable Foundation and The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation.

This project is supported in part by an award from the National Endowment for the Arts. To find out more about how National Endowment for the Arts grants impact individuals and communities, visit www.arts.gov.

ADDITIONAL THANKS TO

To the students of Davis, Huffman, Kitchin, Poteat and Taylor, thank you for letting us rehearse and perform in your backyard this week.
