

Parent and Caregivers Affinity Group Bylaws

- I. Members are invited to share openly about their experiences but are not required to share anything they do not wish to share.
- II. Statements made in the coffee hour spaces should not be shared publicly.
- III. Participants are encouraged to ask for and provide support to each other related to the challenges associated with caregiving AND the facilitators will make every effort to refer members to appropriate resources.