Notes for Today's Worship

About the Worship Leader

Mosaic is a student art group at Wake Forest School of Divinity whose goal is to provide a space for anyone to experience the divine through creative practices. These practices range from finger painting to baking bread to making collages out of old papers. All forms of creative expressions are welcomed to be practiced, and all artists, including those who consider themselves "non-artists" are encouraged come.

Mosaic will be sponsoring a community art gallery to celebrate the creative gifts that God has blessed our community with. The gallery will open on Friday, March 27 and will remain up in the lower auditorium until April 1. All are welcome to attend as well as contribute pieces of art.

Moved By the Gospel

1. Moved by the Gospel, let us move With every gift and art. The image of creation good, So let us now express With sound and color, stone and wood, The shape of holiness.
2. Let weavers form from broken strands A tapistry of prayer. Let artists paint with creation good, So let us now express With flute and organ, chimes and drum God’s praise be ever heard.
3. O Spirit, breathe among us here; In spire the work we do. May hands and voices, active love Indwells each human heart. TheThen skillful hands Their joy, lament, and care. Then eye and ear Attest to life made new. In worship and in daily strife Creation good, So let us now express With sound and color, stone and wood, The shape of holiness.

Tune: KINGSFOLD, CMD; English; harm. by Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1872-1958
