Notes for Today's Worship

About the Worship Leader

George Reed has been the Executive Director of the North Carolina Council of Churches since 2000. Prior to that he worked for the Christian Life Council of the Baptist State Convention of NC. He is a native of Orlando, Florida, and a graduate of Florida State University, Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, and the University of Virginia School of Law. His wife works in human services and his son is an officer in the Marine Corps.

Worship

Today's worship service was planned by Andria Williamson (MDiv '17), Daniel Potter (MDiv '16), and Rev. George Reed.

The bread for Communion was prepared by Monica Banks (MDiv '17).

Communion

Communion will be celebrated by intinction today. You will be given or you may receive bread and may choose to dip it in the wine or grape juice.

Bread is Gluten Free at both stations, unless otherwise noted.

Wine and Grape Juice are present in both chalices. Wine will be present on the side of the chalice inscribed with a "W". It is on the lesser filled side of the chalice. Grape Juice will be on the side of the chalice inscribed with a "J". It is the more filled side of the chalice.
