Notes for Today's Worship

About the Worship Leader

Analyse Triolo, a native of Greensboro, NC, graduated from UNCG in 2012 with a Bachelors of Fine Arts in Theatre Education. As a lifelong member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America she is excited to be continuing her journey towards Ordination at the Lutheran School of Theology at Chicago next year. She has a passion for dance, photography and BBC television shows. She wishes to thank the Wake Div community for giving her the opportunity to dance again and for surrounding her with love and support over the years. “Preach the Gospel at all times and when necessary use words.” Francis of Assisi

Worship

Liturgies have been adapted from the Evangelical Lutheran Worship, the prayer book and hymnal for the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America (ELCA).

Today’s worship service was planned by Analyse Triolo (MDiv ’15), Andria Williamson (MDiv ’17), and Daniel Potter (MDiv ’16).

Communion

Communion will be shared by intinction today. Each station will have gluten-free bread and each chalice will hold both wine and grape juice. The wine in each chalice is marked with a “W” and is the lesser-filled portion of the cup, and the grape juice in each chalice is marked with a “J” and is the more-filled portion of the cup. All are welcome to partake.

About the Stripping of the Altar

After the Eucharist is celebrated it is customary in ELCA congregations to “strip the altar,” which symbolizes the abandonment of Jesus by his disciples and the stripping of Jesus by the soldiers before his crucifixion. It represents the humiliation of Jesus and the consequences of sin as a preparation for the celebration of new life.
