Scripture: Mark 10:13-16  Amanda Kerr (MDiv ’18)

People were bringing little children to him in order that he might touch them; and the disciples spoke sternly to them. But when Jesus saw this, he was indignant and said to them, “Let the little children come to me; do not stop them; for it is to such as these that the kingdom of God belongs. Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God as a little child will never enter it.” And he took them up in his arms, laid his hands on them, and blessed them.

Seed Scattered and Sown

Refrain

Seed, scattered and sown, wheat, gathered and grown, bread, broken and shared as one, the Living Bread of God. Vine, fruit of the land, wine, work of our hands, one cup that is shared by all; the Living Cup, the Living Bread of God.

Verses

1. Is seed scattered? Is the good soil the church?
2. The seed falls on the hills; But will it grow?
3. As the sprouts are crushed with rolling wheels, They will die. So may we die.
4. The fruit is a fruit of the land; Where the seed is scattered, the wine is poured.

*Song: “Until All Are Fed”

1. How long will we sing? How long will we pray? How long will we write and send?

2. How long will we talk? How long will we prod? How long must we fret and hoard?

3. How can we stand by and fail to be aghost? How long ‘til we do what’s right?

4. On the green, green grass they gathered long ago to hear what the Master said. What they had they shared—some fish—es and some loaves. They served until all were served?

mends? Until all are fed, we cry out. Until all on earth have bread. Like the Lord? light? fed.

One who loves us, each and every one... we serve until all are fed.
