

Community Worship

The background of the slide features a large, circular abstract painting. The painting is composed of thick, textured brushstrokes in shades of yellow, orange, and red, creating a sense of movement and depth. Overlaid on this painting are several thin, curved lines in dark red and yellow, which sweep across the frame, adding a dynamic, modern feel to the design.

Centering

Scripture: Matthew 5:13-16

Lauren Graeber (MDiv '20)

Leader: Join me in affirming our call from the Lord.

People: You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt loses its saltiness, how can it be made salty again? It is no longer good for anything, except to be thrown out and trampled underfoot. You are the light of the world. A town built on a hill cannot be hidden. Neither do people light a lamp and put it under a bowl. Instead they put it on its stand, and it gives light to everyone in the house.

Leader: In the same way, let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven. Amen.

Bringing in the Light (and Salt)

“We Are” by Kari Jobe

Refrain:

*We are the Light of the World
We are the City on a Hill
We are the Light of the World
You gotta, you gotta, you gotta let your light shine*

Notes for Today's Worship

About the Worship Leader

Rev. Dr. Daisy Machado is a professor of church history at Union Theological Seminary in New York. Being of Cuban descent, her ministry is primarily focused on Latinx communities and contexts. Her scholarly work pertains specifically to US Christianities. She holds a B.A. from Brooklyn College, a M.S.W. from Hunter College School of Social Work, a MDiv. from Union Theological Seminary, and a Ph.D. in History of Christianity from the University of Chicago. She is the first U.S. Latina ordained in the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ). Her current projects include the Hispanic Summer Program, a two-week intensive course and networking opportunity for Latinx and Hispanic students and ministers.

Worship

Today's worship service was planned by Taina Diaz-Reyes (MDiv/MA '19) and Sean McClure (MDiv '19).

Today's bulletin cover art was retrieved from <https://fineartamerica.com/featured/now-you-are-the-light-of-the-world-and-salt-of-the-earth-lalo-gutierrez.html>

Communion

Communion today is celebrated by intinction. You will be given a piece of gluten-free bread that you are invited to dip into the wine or grape juice.

Wine and grape juice are present in both chalices. Wine is in the lesser-filled side of the chalice and inscribed with a "W." Grape juice is in the greater-filled side of the chalice and is inscribed with a "J."
