About Today's Worship

About the Worship Leader:

The Rev. Dr. Carter Heyward, a theologian, teacher, and priest, (now retired), in the Episcopal Church, is one of the eleven women first ordained in The Episcopal Church in 1974 despite the Church's refusal to officially sanction the ordination of women. Heyward has been heavily involved in various justice movements ranging from racial integration to equal rights for members of the LGBTQ community. Her academic work has focused on putting such justice movements in conversation with political, historical, theological, and psychological contexts.

Worship Preparation:

All music used in today's service was composed by Mark A. Miller, who believes passionately that music can change the world. He also believes in Cornell West's quote that 'Justice is what love looks like in public.' His dream is that the music he composes, performs, teaches and leads will inspire and empower people to create the beloved community. Mark Miller currently serves on the faculty at both the Drew Theological School and the Institute of Sacred Music at Yale University where he teaches music and worship. He also is Director of the Gospel and Youth Choirs at the Marble Collegiate Church, in New York City.

Today's worship service was planned by Sally Ann Morris, musician in residence.

The altar design was created by Taina Diaz-Reyes (MDiv/MA '19).
