The Divinity School

Bill J. Leonard, Dean

The Wake Forest University Divinity School welcomes students into a community of learning, rigorous scholarship, academic freedom, and service within the Community of Faith, the Church of Jesus Christ.

The Divinity School prepares individuals for ministry in the Christian Church. It is a school whose mission is Christian by tradition, ecumenical in outlook, and Baptist in heritage.

Christian BY TRADITION...

The Word became flesh and lived among us, and we have seen his glory, the glory as of a father's only son, full of grace and truth. John 1:14

To announce good news to the poor, to proclaim release for prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, To let the broken victims go free, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favour. Luke 4:18-19

Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. John 13:16

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross. Phil. 2:5-8

We recommend ourselves by the innocence of our behavior, our grasp of truth, our patience and kindness; by gifts of the Holy spirit, by sincere love, by declaring the truth, by the power of God. II Cor. 6:6-7
