

Declaration of Concentration

The School of Divinity encourages students to declare a concentration as soon as possible. Students should work with their adviser and concentration track director to design an appropriate course of study.

Completing this form will help you plan and aid the Office of Academic Affairs in tracking your progress. Please mark one of the following concentrations and complete the requested information.

Name: _____ Phone: _____

ID Number: _____ Email Address: _____

_____ Religious Leadership in Food, Health, and Ecology

I intend to pursue the following track (circle one)

- Food (12h) – Director: Jill Crainshaw
- Health (12h) – Director: Mark Jensen
- Ecology (12h) – Director: Fred Bahnson
- General Concentration (15h) – Director: Jill Crainshaw

I am considering the following internship site(s) related to this concentration or track:

_____ Sustainability

- With the Wake Forest University Center for Energy, Environment, and Sustainability, the School of Divinity offers a certificate that provides students with exposure to sustainability issues in the natural science, social sciences and humanities, business management, and law and policy.
- Please follow instructions for applying for this concentration through the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.
- Director: Mark Jensen

_____ Episcopal Studies

- Director: Porter Taylor

Signature of Student _____ Date _____

Signature of Concentration Director _____ Date _____

Please submit this form to the Office of Academic Affairs in Wingate 203B