Can Weeping For Our Planet Be Enough?

MCKIBBEN

Adam M.L.Tice, 2018

Sally Ann Morris, 2018

The musical score is written on four staves in 12/8 time, featuring a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is composed of eighth and quarter notes, with some rests. The lyrics are aligned with the notes, with some words appearing below multiple notes or spanning across measures. The lyrics are as follows:

1.Can weep - ing for our plan - et be e - nough if
2.Can pray - ing for our plan - et be e - nough if 3.Can hop - ing for our plan - et be e - nough if 4.Will striv - ing for our plan - et be e - nough to tears ob - scure the work we must pur - sue? If we will and not ex - tend a hand in care? If power will and mon - ey make the fu - ture bleak? If save us from our self - in - flict - ed fate? O

God calls us to peace on earth, then what are good in - ten - tions worth when God calls us to peace on earth, then what can thoughts and prayers be worth when God, who loves this frag - ile earth, whose Word - made - flesh con - firms its worth, work so there much work re - mains for us to do?

less is we al - so much dam - age to re - pair?
through us now, be - fore it for what we seek?
late!

Breathe on Me

Lucy Fisher/Hillsong

1. Breathe on me, breath of God, love and life that makes me free, breathe on me, breath of God, fan the flame with - in me.

9 Chorus
Teach my heart and heal my soul, speak the life that in Christ we know.

13 Back to Verse 1
Take me to your sanc - tu - a - ry, breathe on me.

17
2. Speak to me, voice of God, soft and still in - side my heart.

21
Speak to me, Word of God, com - fort, heal, re - store with love.

25 Chorus
Teach my heart and heal my soul, speak the life that in Christ we know.

29 Repeat chorus 2 times Final time, repeat until fade
Take me to your sanc - tu - a - ry, breathe on me.
