Song

“All the Colors of the Rainbow”

Amazing Grace

All the colors of the rainbow live unseen in daily light, but their splendors find expression when released to human sight;
so the church reveals most beauty where diversity is real:
breadth of race and class and gender, room for doubt and space to heal.

All the body’s parts are wanted, nor can one despise the rest:
head and hand must work together, as must eye and ear and chest;
so the church needs all its members for a range of ministries:
varied gifts with one great mission, “Do this for the least of these.”

Every language gains more music when the words for peace appear:
Pax, Salaam, Eirini, Heiwa, Pace, Santi, Frieden, Mir.
though our tongues make sounds that vary all bespeak a common home:
longing for the end of conflict and new life in God’s Shalom.

Teach us, God, our need of others; through them help us fully live.
Wean us from our selfish habits; let us listen, learn, forgive.
May we see your longed-for image in each human heart and face, and behold how those around us can be channels of your grace.

About Today's Worship

About the Worship Leader:

The primary goal of Kaleidoscope is to serve as a safe and welcoming environment for lesbian, gay, bisexual, transgender, queer, questioning, intersex and allied students, faculty, and staff from all cultural, socio-economic, ethnic, and ecumenical backgrounds. Additionally, we seek to provide opportunities for all divinity school students, faculty, and staff to ask questions and dialogue with mutual respect so as to promote understanding of and engagement with LGBTQIA+ matters. Kaleidoscope is a voice for the full and equal participation of LGBTQ people in all areas of our shared academic, social, and faith life. Lastly, Kaleidoscope serves as an educational resource to all divinity school students, faculty, and staff, promoting awareness of the challenges faced by LGBTQIA+ people of faith, affirming theological and biblical perspectives.

Worship Preparation:

Today's worship service was planned by Johanna Kelley (MDiv '20) and Curtis Adams (MDiv '20)

The altar design was created by Michael Hood (MDiv '20)

Communion

Communion today is celebrated by intinction. You will be given a piece of gluten-free bread that you are invited to dip into the wine or grape juice.

Wine and grape juice are present in both chalices. Wine is in the lesser-filled side of the chalice and inscribed with a "W." Grape juice is in the greater-filled side of the chalice and is inscribed with a "J."

The bread was baked by Alexx Anderson (MDiv '20)
