

Declaration of Concentration

The School of Divinity encourages students to declare a concentration as soon as possible in their course of study in the MDiv program.

Name: _____ Phone: _____

ID Number: _____ Email Address: _____

Religious Leadership in Food, Health, and Ecology

I intend to pursue the following track (circle one)

- Food (12h) – Director: Jill Crainshaw
- Health (12h) – Director: Mark Jensen
- Ecology (12h) – Director: Jill Crainshaw
- General Concentration (15h) – Director: Jill Crainshaw

I am considering the following internship site(s) related to this concentration or track:

Sustainability

- Directors: Mark Jensen and Stan Meiburg (Sustainability)
- Students will also apply for this concentration through the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.
- With the Wake Forest University Center for Energy, Environment, and Sustainability, the School of Divinity offers a certificate that provides students with exposure to sustainability issues in the natural sciences, social sciences and humanities, business management, and law and policy.

Episcopal Studies

- Director: John Senior

Interfaith Literacy and Leadership

- Director: Neal Walls

Women's, Gender, & Sexuality Studies

- Director: Wanda Balzano (Women's, Gender, & Sexuality Studies Department)

Signature of Student _____ Date _____

Signature of Concentration Director _____ Date _____