Talking Through Walls: How the Struggle to Build a Mosque Unites a Community

The moving story of how a determined, but ailing Muslim man, joins a coalition that includes a Catholic Priest, two Rabbis, and a Buddhist to get a mosque built in a resistant New Jersey City.

Thursday, April 4, 2013
7:00 pm
ZSR Auditorium

Sponsored by Office of the Chaplain and Muslim Student Association