

Lounge and Block Housing Review and Renewal Process

1. All organizations occupying a leased lounge and/or block housing are subjected to a triennial spring review by the Committee on Student Life. This review covers the three-year period ending with the spring semester in which the review occurs.
2. Evaluation criteria include the following:
 - Group academic performance.
 - Group judicial history.
 - Facility care, safety, and maintenance.
 - Fiscal responsibility.
 - Contributions to the residence hall community.
 - Contributions to student development.
 - Contributions to the intellectual and cultural life of the campus.
 - Community service contributions.
 - Long-term organizational history and citizenship.
3. Information will be requested from the Office of Residence Life and Housing and the organization under review. Requested information will be received by the Committee on Student Life at a date to be determined in the spring semester; reviewing results will be distributed to the affected organizations in April, and appeals will be heard in late April, if needed, by the Committee or requested by the organization.
4. The Office of Residence Life and Housing is to submit information on:
 - Judicial history.
 - General student life contributions.
 - Residence hall contributions.
 - Facility care, safety, and maintenance (e.g., inspection summaries, damage and fine summaries, facility enhancements).
 - Fiscal responsibility.
 - Party management history.
 - Campus contributions.
 - Academic achievement and performance history.
5. The organization under review is to submit a report covering all criteria specified in Item 2 above.
