Graduate School of Arts & Sciences Fall 2025 Orientation
Wednesday, August 20, 2025
Barn at Reynolda, Reynolda Village

ALL New Incoming Reynolda Campus Students Orientation - 9am to 11:30am

8:15a   Doors Open

Students may arrive to check in, receive their student ID and GSAS swag, & enjoy complimentary breakfast.

9:00a   New Student Orientation Begins

Dean of the College & Graduate School of Arts & Sciences Dr. Jackie Krasas, Senior Associate Dean of the Graduate School Dr. Tony Marsh & Associate Dean for Academic Advising Dr. Jennifer Rogers will formally welcome students to Wake Forest.

Life in the Forest Basics

Information provided on dining options, transportation & shuttle service, technology support at the Bridge, ZSR Library, study spaces, & graduate student lounge access.

Academic Honor Code & Research Ethics

Academic honor code, plagiarism & deception, research ethics, & CITI training requirement.

10:15a   Break

Bathroom and coffee break.

10:30a   Campus Partners

Staff from key campus partners will share about graduate student support in their offices.

Student Services & Wellbeing Resources

Information provided on career counseling, identity centers, Center for Immigration Services & Support, mental health resources, health resources, community connection, & student concern reporting structure.

OIE & Title IX

Learn from the Office of Institutional Equity about Title IX, reporting process for students and assistantship holders, FERPA, and more.

Q&A

Dr. Jennifer Rogers will answer student questions and wrap up the morning session.

Lunch Break - 11:30am to 12:30pm

Attendees will be provided with a boxed lunch. New teaching, research, and graduate assistants will remain for the afternoon session; other students & Graduate Program Directors will be dismissed.

New Teaching, Research, & Graduate Assistant Orientation - 12:30pm to 3:30pm

12:30 - 12:40p   Welcome

12:40p - 1:00p   CLASS

1:00p - 3:30p   CAT Teaching Bootcamp

3:30p   HR & GSAS Finance on site to collect I-9 forms as needed from students