

Meet your 2018 Wake Forest University Homecoming Court

Caleb Cabiness

Bachelors in Theatre
Archdale, NC

Caleb is the President/Music Director of Chi Rho, so you should vote for him if you enjoy pastel pants and the Lion Sleeps Tonight. He is a Theatre major - if you've ever taken an Intro to Theatre class, you may have seen him on stage.

Erica Jordan

Politics and International affairs major with minors in History and American Ethnic Studies
Charlotte, NC

I'm from Charlotte and I love being from there and I love every organization I have given my time to while at Wake.

Luis Herrera

Bachelor of Arts in Psychology with a minor in Health and Human Services
Lilburn, GA

Hey! Stoked to be a part of the homecoming court! Woo! A little about me: I like long walks on the beach and 17th century French poetry. My life aspiration is to invent something simple and useful like the rubber band or the paper-clip so I can be a stay at home dad. This school is HUGE so if we haven't met feel free to connect with me on Sakai! Go Deacs!

Arthur Willson

Bachelor of Science in Business and Enterprise Management with a minor in entrepreneurship
Greenville, SC

Hi there! For those of you I haven't gotten the chance to meet, I'm Arthur and for those who I do know, "what's up?" I love Wake Forest (and I'm high key sentimental that my time here is coming to an end)! You may have run into me helping out our over 200 awesome student organizations on Student Organizations Council, or your organization may have needed some money for a campus-wide event and our paths cross at a Student Activity Fee Committee meeting. If we haven't met, I assure you I've been working behind the scenes on Student Life Committee and Campus Life Advisory committee to make our Wake experience the best it can be! I've also led TEDx WakeForestU, serve on the executive board of Alpha Kappa Psi, and am heavily involved in entrepreneurship on campus. I'm also a die-hard Demon Deacon fan and yes, I was there for every second of the last home game (all 63-3 of it). I can't wait to see everyone at BB&T Field as we crush Syracuse! If you're not convinced to vote for me yet, I leave you with this: I have a kingly name, so please help me make King Arthur a thing again! Thanks and Go Deacs!

Kandis McNeil

Bachelor of Science in Biology with minors in Chemistry and Neuroscience
Millers Creek, NC

Hello, my fellow Deacs! I am very honored to be on this year's homecoming court and to be representing the school we all love so much. I grew up in rural North Carolina in a small town called Millers Creek. You may have seen me in Winston Hall since I am a Biology Major and BIO Center Tutor, you may know me as the Health Occupations Students of America (HOSA) President, you may know me as a fellow first-generation college student (should out to the Magnolia Scholars), or you may have just seen me in passing on campus. I am also a pre-medical student and am currently in the process of interviewing for medical schools. In my spare time (which is rare, as I am sure it is for many of you) I like to cook, bake, and craft. It relieves the stress we all know so well from "Work Forest!" I'm simply thankful that I got to call Wake Forest my home for these past few years and thankful I was able to meet and collaborate with all of you wonderful people. You all have truly made me a better person and better student. As always, go Deacs!

Daniel Joseph Oberti

Bachelor of Science in Biology and Studio Art Double Major with a minor in Chemistry
Atlanta, GA

Hey Deacs, my name is Daniel Oberti from Atlanta, GA and you're watching Disney Channel (insert tune and poorly drawn animated mickey silhouette). Some of y'all might know me as the guy who put up the giant red ADHD letters in front of ZSR last year and other might know me as that guy who gave you your tour before you came to Wake, but I am a dedicated Wake Forest student involved primarily in Student Government, Ambassadors in Admissions (tour guides), Biology, as well as Refugee Art Therapy research, and Sigma Pi. I have loved every minute at this institution and have tried at every point of my time here to give back to the community. Happy Homecoming and Go Deacs. Gotta Blast!

Daniella Feijoo

Politics and International Affairs and Spanish double major with a minor in Latin American Studies
Wauconda, IL

Hi everyone! My name is Daniella Feijoo and I'm a senior studying Politics and International Affairs and Spanish! I'm originally from Wauconda, IL. I have been a member of the Spirit of the Old Gold and Black marching band all four years and I am a member of our co-ed band service fraternity, Kappa Kappa Psi. I serve as co-chair for education of the Volunteer Service Corps and I tutor at El Buen Pastor Latino Community Services. I work in the OPCD as a career assistant and it has been such a great part of my Demon Deacon experience, getting to meet students from all over the country and the world. From the past four years at Wake, some of my favorite memories have been Love Feast, the Belk and Military bowls, Pro Humanitate Day of Service, Wake N' Shake, my Wake alternative break trip to Washington DC on the topic of interfaith movements, traveling around Buenos Aires, Argentina with new friends on the Southern Cone Wake Program and meeting incredible people through the Wake the Vote 2016 cohort. I am a proud Magnolia Scholar and so grateful for my experiences here at WFU. I've made so many incredible friends and gained so many wonderful mentors (staff, professors, and friends). GO DEACS!

Amanda Spangler

Bachelor of Arts in Political Science with a minor in Classical Languages
Pittsburgh, PA

I'm a Political Science major with a Classical Languages minor from Pittsburgh, PA. I'm very involved in a variety of campus organizations, as president of the professional business fraternity, a member of the mock trial team, a President's Aide and a member of Chi Omega sorority. You can usually find me on campus hanging out in Farrell or grabbing a sandwich at Dioli's. The past few years have given me an incredible home at Wake Forest, and I'm so honored to be able to represent that on Homecoming Court.

Austin Hill

Psychology and Studio Art double major

I'm a student associate in both the LGBTQ Center and the Art Department, and I have enjoyed putting time and work into supporting the marginalized communities on the Wake Forest campus. On a larger scale, I have had the opportunity to work for nonprofits in Winston-Salem, sharing my enthusiasm and energy towards empowering the community in which our school sits. "Pro Humanitate" was the reason that I applied to be a Demon Deacon and I'm grateful for the chances that I've had to share that with others!

Kia Hutchins

Bachelor of Science in Chemistry with a concentration in Biochemistry, Minors in Biology and Chinese Language and Culture

Wayzata, MN

I am a senior from Wayzata, MN, but I spent most of middle and high school living in Shanghai, China. On campus, I am involved with Alpha Phi Omega co-ed service fraternity and American Sign Language Club, and I am a second year RA! Post-grad, I am planning to go into Genetic Counseling.

Tyler Gleeson

Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics and Spanish
Clarksville, MD

Tyler Gleeson is completing his double major in Math and Spanish while remaining actively involved on campus. He has been a member of Student Union since his first year and now serves as VP of Marketing for the organization. He is also excited to be organizing finances for this year's TEDx WakeForestU event. Catch him Monday mornings at 11am giving tours and trying not to fall over while walking down the Benson stairs backwards!

Maddy Burrows

Bachelor of Arts in Political Science and Spanish
Chester, NJ

Maddy is working to complete her double major in Politics and International Affairs and Spanish. She has been actively involved on campus during her time here through Student Union, and now serves as President of the organization. Maddy is also a member of Kappa Delta and loves working with the Girl Scouts every year through the sorority. She is excited to keep having fun through her senior year and to be a part of Homecoming, her favorite Wake tradition.

Taylor Hodges

Bachelor of Arts in Psychology with minors in Biology and Chemistry
Chesapeake, VA

Hi! My name is Taylor and I'm from Virginia (757!!!) My friends would describe me as friendly, funny, very extraverted and outgoing, and just an overall fun person. I'm involved in a number of organizations here at Wake including the Black Student Alliance, The National Residence Hall Honorary, and working with children at El Buen Pastor. These and the rest of the organizations that I am involved in are only a portion of why I love Wake! I would say that I really love it here because of my classmates. From freshmen to seniors, you all have helped me make everlasting memories and I would want to be anywhere else. Vote for me!

Morgan Briggs

Business and Enterprise Management and Religion
Knoxville, TN

Morgan Briggs is a senior majoring in Business and Enterprise Management and Religion. Throughout her time at Wake Forest, she has been involved in Campus Kitchen, and she currently serves as the Student Co-coordinator, managing all of the daily operations of Campus Kitchen and helping to provide over 250 meals a week for the Winston-Salem community. Morgan's passion involves finding solutions to food disparity, and she hopes to pursue a PhD in Social Data Science after graduation to map more effective models for food distribution. Morgan has been an RA, a tour guide, and a member of the Honor and Ethics Council for three years. She serves as a peer minister and treasurer for the Wake Forest Catholic Community playing music at their services each weekend. Morgan currently serves as the Student Trustee, VP of Mortar Board, and as a student liaison to the Disabilities Services Office. Morgan can be found at Campus Grounds most days or taking over the Wake Forest University Snapchat.

Will Hargrove

Bachelor of Arts in Economics and Spanish with a minor in Entrepreneurship
Birmingham, AL

Will is a four-year representative of Wake Forest's Student Government where he currently serves on the Executive Board as Speaker of the House. Outside of Student Government, Will is involved in RUF and his fraternity, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, where he served as the Academic Officer for the past two years. Will is employed as a Student Engagement Consultant in the Office of Student Engagement, and he writes for the sports section of the Old Gold & Black. After graduation, Will will be working for MasterCard in the Global Business Service Center. In his free time, Will enjoys playing on his intramural volleyball team, listening to old country and classic rock music, and hanging out with his friends on campus. If Will could have dinner with any celebrity, he would go to Putters with David Allen Coe and Johnny Cash.

Danny Reeves

Politics and International Affairs and Communications
Hershey, PA

Wake Forest has always been my dream school and it is amazing to be here. While at Wake I have been involved within Student Government, which I currently serve as President. On campus, my favorite activity is being on the quad. Go Deacs!

Christian Green

Bachelor of Arts in Biology with minors in Journalism and Neuroscience
Raleigh, NC

Hi! My name is Christian and I'm a senior from Raleigh, NC. On campus, I'm a member of the service fraternity Alpha Phi Omega, Wake Radio, an RA, and a photographer for several different organizations. I also run a campus photoblog called The Forest Folk which celebrates different students on campus. When I finally get to studying, I study neuroscience with a research focus as well as journalism and visual storytelling so that I can hopefully eventually work as a liaison between scientists and patients by telling their stories. You're most likely to find me in the ZSR atrium, walking around campus with my camera, or enjoying a good 3pm Pit Sit.

Anna Hibbert

Bachelor of Arts in Computer Science and Theatre
Asheville, NC

Hey everyone, my name is Anna (like from Frozen), and I'm a proud native of Asheville, NC! Here on campus, I am a Computer Science and Theatre double major, and the President of Anthony Aston Players. I have performed in many WFU Theatre productions where my roles have included a swan, a sassy Gap employee, and a 19th century German girl who sang about sexual tension and teenage angst. However, if you are a first-year through junior, you would've seen me during your orientation weekend in Wake World! In the few hours when I'm not in rehearsal or coding, you can find me catching up on Game of Thrones with Ben & Jerry's in my hand.

Allegra Brochin

Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Communications with a minor in Entrepreneurship
Rye, NY

Allegra has exhibited her Deacon spirit since Freshman year. She is a proud member of Ambassadors in Admissions, serving as a tour guide since freshman year and has been on the executive board for the past three years and was also this year's Chair of Publicity and Outreach for Project Pumpkin's 30th year at Wake Forest. Allegra is a member and the secretary of Psi Chi National Psychology Honors Society and is a member of Lambda Pi Eta National Communication Honors Society. She was a member of Student Union for 3 years and served as the first director of Deacon Pride, creating and planning Wake Forest events such as Birthday Bash and Senior Sendoff, as well as VP of Marketing last year. Allegra has also been a tutor for the Learning Assistance Center since freshman year, as well as a Student Adviser for the past 3 years. Allegra is a proud recipient of the Office of Student Engagement's 2017-2018 SOAR Award for Unsung Hero. Allegra loves meeting fellow Deacons through her involvement on campus and hopes to help every Deacon feel at home at Wake Forest! You can catch her running around Benson when she's not in class or having a grilled cheese at Shorty's.

Sierra Leslie

Music Major, Psychology Minor
Bowie, MD

Hi! My name is Sierra, I'm a music major (vocal performance) and Psychology minor who loves performing and my favorite color is purple. You may remember seeing me in Wake World or in on-campus Theatre Productions or at the Copy Center or just in passing. I have four siblings in MD, but honestly being at Wake has allowed my family to grow so much! I am incredibly passionate about everything Performing Arts related as well as the Avengers movies and I love LifeSaver Gumies. Also, I love playing UNO and Mario Kart. And SINCE you're reading this, you should stop by the Haunted Tunnel in Babcock-Luter Courtyard from 6-10 and bring $3. I heard it's gonna be really fun!! wink wink You're all doing amazing, keep up the great work! Thanks!
