

DIVISION OF CAMPUS LIFE

Campus Life at Wake Forest represents a journey that seeks to engage students in experiences that broaden the mind, strengthen the body, and inspire the spirit. Opportunities for such experiences abound at Wake Forest. In collaboration with student leaders, the offices of student life aim to enrich the lives of students through meaningful engagement in student organizations, service learning, campus activities, community and civic engagement, recreation, and leadership development.

The Division of Campus Life encompasses the following departments:

- Campus Life Finance & Operations
- Campus Recreation
- Dean of Students
- Learning Assistance Center & Disability Services
- Office of the Chaplain
- Office of Residence Life and Housing
- Office of Wellbeing
- Student Health Service
- Title IX
- University Counseling Center
- University Police

Professionals in these offices are devoted to assuring that students take advantage of their time at Wake Forest in ways that explore their full potential for growth and learning within a nurturing environment that promotes meaningful connections with our community and allows students to consider and realize their future aspirations. These professionals serve as teachers, advisors, coaches, counselors, physicians, and mentors in a variety of settings.

The Division of Campus Life relies upon student leadership to fulfill its mission. Student leaders are instrumental in shaping and sustaining a vibrant, responsible, and friendly campus ethos. They serve as resident advisors, peer mentors, office interns, student union organizers, referees, members of the honor council, volunteer service coordinators, and leaders of a wide variety of student organizations. Through such partnerships students and staff work together to sustain the human networks that strengthen and sustain our community.

Learn more about the Division of Campus Life at campuslife.wfu.edu.

Strategic Directions

- Lead a comprehensive approach to student and community wellbeing
- Cultivate an inclusive community where all students feel a sense of belonging and are valued contributing members
- Prepare students to lead in a diverse environment with cultural humility
- Foster a culture of peer engagement, leadership, and accountability
- Promote operational excellence in all systems and processes