

SUMMER PROGRAMS FROM THE LAM MUSEUM OF ANTHROPOLOGY AT WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY

Two programs for elementary children or teens available to book now!

CHINA: THEN & NOW (PREK-5 OR TEEN)

Using images and objects from the Museum's collections, participants will learn about the mix of people, cultures, and arts that make China such a fascinating country.

- PreK through 5th grade children will make a dragon toy.
- Teens will create a Chinese painted scroll.

MYTHOLOGY: GODS, GODDESSES, AND MONSTERS (PREK-5 OR TEEN)

Looking at images, videos, and objects from the Museum's collections, participants will learn what mythology is. We will discuss why mythology has been and continues to be an important part of cultures around the world.

- PreK through 5th grade children will make Greek masks.
- Teens will create Roman-inspired glass mosaics.

Programs are available at the Museum or as outreach at your location.

The fee is $5.00 per child. For groups of 20 or fewer, there is a minimum fee of $100. For outreach programs, there is an additional flat mileage fee based on your location.

For more information or to book your programs, please contact the Lam Museum of Anthropology at lammuseum@wfu.edu or 336-758-5282.