
Wake Forest University

Department for the Study of Religions

YEAZEL SPEAKER SERIES

FROM WORLD RELIGIONS TO LIVED RELIGION

Religious literacy and the K-12 classroom with Tim Hall, Ph.D.

Thursday, October 15th

3:30 pm

ZSR Auditorium

Tim Hall is the Principal of Vance County Early College High School and K-12 Social Studies Instructional Coordinator, Vance County Schools in NC. He received the 2025–26 National Council for the Social Studies Religious Literacy Award. His forthcoming book, Bringing Religious Literacy to the Classroom: Global Competence for K–12 Social Studies will be out February 3, 2027 by Routledge Eye on Education. He specializes in K–12 leadership, research, and professional development focused on religious literacy, global competence, and social studies education.

WAKE FOREST
UNIVERSITY

Department for the Study of Religions