

WAKE FOREST
UNIVERSITY

Faculty-student research presentations session

The Spanish Variation and Change Lab (SVCLab) is happy to host a session to present the results of the research projects conducted by the lab members for the last few months.

Friday, February 17th, 2023
3:00-5:00pm
Greene Hall 239

SPANISH VARIATION AND CHANGE LAB
WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY

3:00-3:30, La neutralización de los diptongos decrecientes [aj]
y [ej] en el español de España
César Gutiérrez and Phoebe Dias

3:30-4:00, Is the Spanish of the US present in the curriculum?
A look into Spanish major and minors' satisfaction with their Spanish college education
Sean Muller and Sara Fernández-Cuenca

4:00-4:30, Nimbler or more nimble?: A study of the English
comparatives of intermediate L2 Spanish speakers
Caroline Brady and Lauren Miller

4:30-5:00, Spanish-English medical interpreters' self-reported confidence: the role of acquisitional profile and interpreting training in perceived ability
Olivia Blake and Sara Fernández-Cuenca