

SARAH MULLOY ('18)

Major: Biology, Latin

What are your plans for after graduation?

I am going to graduate school for Neuroscience at the University of Minnesota and hope to pursue a career in academic research.

What is your happiest memory from the department and studying Classics?

One of my favorite memories was becoming the Tyrant of Athens in THM's FYS class.

What will you miss most?

All the great conversations during Latin Class!

Juilee Shivalkar ('18)

Major: Politics & Intl Affairs
Minor: Middle East & South Asia
Studies, Classical Studies

What are your plans for after graduation?

After graduation, I will be in Atlanta, and I plan to continue working with refugees.

What is your happiest memory from the department and studying Classics?

I have enjoyed all of my Classics classes, but I really enjoyed the exhibition for my Classics Seminar!

What will you miss most?

I will miss seeing everyone from my Greek classes, especially since I had classes with some of them every semester I took Greek!

Cheyenne Zuck ('18)

Major: Theatre, Greek
Minor: Classical Studies

What are your plans for after graduation?

I will be working at the Actor's Theatre of Louisville, KY as a sound apprentice for a year!

What is your happiest memory from the department & studying Classics?

My happiest memory from the department and studying classics is taking T.H.M.'s First Year Seminar during my first semester at Wake! I remember having a lot of fun, and it was one of the main things to inspire me into studying Classical Languages. Another fond memory of studying Classics (Greek, particularly) was Professor Lather's Greek Lyric class, which was full of puns and strange tangents into cheese and wine mixing.

What will you miss most?

I think I will miss T.H.M. and Lather's banter the most. Taking a class with the both of them is something I will never forget. I'll also miss the outstanding community within the department, and how even if I never took a class with a professor, they still said hi and asked how my thesis was going. I will also miss (and have missed) the excellent Post-Docs and visiting professors who have come through the department that I had the pleasure of taking classes with.