

CLASSICS BEYOND WHITENESS SERIES PRESENTS

Centering Black Classicists

14 Black Classicists: A photographic portrait series featuring Black scholars, teachers, and leaders in the field of Classics whose forgotten histories have been recovered by the archival research of Professor Michele Valerie Ronnick. Also featuring a new, painted portrait by local artist Leo Rucker, to be unveiled during the reception. The subject of this portrait is Helen Maria Chestnutt.

KICK-OFF RECEPTION
FRIDAY, JANUARY 17TH
4:00PM
ZSR AMMONS ROOM (4TH FLOOR)

GUEST SPEAKERS INCLUDE:

Leo Rucker, Artist

Mellie Mesfin, Student Government President

Miles Middleton, Speaker of the House

Eric Ashley Hairston, Associate Dean for Academic Advising, University Associate Professor, Interdisciplinary Humanities

Light Refreshments Served

Co-Sponsored by the WFU Classics Dept, WFU Provost Office, WFU Office of Diversity and Inclusion, Society for Classical Studies, Classical Association of the Middle West and South, and

