
Wake Forest University Department of Education
Disposition Concern Form

The Department of Education feels that all teacher candidates should adhere to and exhibit the following professional dispositions:

- Respect learners as individuals.
- Model fair and ethical behavior.
- Demonstrate interest in the welfare of learners.
- Model enthusiasm for and engagement in learning.
- Value collaboration.
- Is open to new ideas.
- Demonstrate dependability.
- Accept responsibility for actions.
- Show initiative.
- Is reflective.

In the event that a Department of Education faculty member recognizes a teacher candidate who does not demonstrate attitudes, beliefs, and actions consistent with the professional dispositions, the faculty member will complete the following form accessible from the Department of Education's website.

Teacher Candidate: _____

Name of person submitting form: _____

Please describe in detail the area(s) of concern:

Please attach all applicable documents and send to the Assessment Coordinator.