

Teacher Professional Learning

CENTER FOR LITERACY EDUCATION

WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY

The Wake Forest Center for Literacy Education sponsors professional learning for K–12 educators. Using a lifelong learning approach through short enrichment courses, these non-credit bearing classes focus on meaningful professional learning around topics in literacy education designed specifically for K-12 teachers and administrators.

View upcoming courses and register at
<https://go.wfu.edu/TPL>

There is a non-refundable $20 registration fee for all participants, though every K-12 public school educator, university pre-service teacher, and Wake Forest alumnus who attends an entire professional learning course will receive a $20 gift card to reimburse their registration fee.