FACULTY SCHOLARSHIP COMPILATION

WAKE FOREST
UNIVERSITY

SCHOOL of LAW

Dear Readers,

I am pleased to present the Faculty Scholarship Compilation for Wake Forest University School of Law. This compilation is a testament to the unique contributions made by our faculty members over the past few years, showcasing their dedication to advancing legal scholarship and the broader cause of justice.

Our faculty's work spans a variety of formats and forums, reflecting the dynamic and multifaceted nature of legal scholarship today. This compilation encapsulates everything from authoritative books that contribute to the foundational understanding of law to incisive legal scholarship that explores nuanced interpretations and applications, and even impactful media appearances that bring expert insights to public discourse.

Our faculty have authored, co-authored, edited, and contributed to several books that cover a wide range of legal topics and demonstrate their commitment to advancing legal knowledge and understanding. These works serve as critical resources in various areas of legal study and practice.

The legal scholarship mentioned in this compilation includes peer-reviewed articles, essays, and other scholarly writings contributing to the ongoing conversation in numerous legal fields. These publications represent our faculty's rigorous research and innovative thinking, pushing the boundaries of legal knowledge and practice.

In addition to traditional scholarly outputs, our faculty regularly engage with broader audiences through various media platforms. Their media activity highlights their contributions to discussions on current legal issues, where they provide clarity and depth to complex legal matters in the public eye. From television and radio interviews to quotes in print and online publications, our faculty's expertise is widely recognized and sought after.

In summary, the diverse scholarly work included underscores our faculty's commitment to academic excellence and willingness to engage in rigorous legal discourse and exploration. At Wake Forest University School of Law, we are proud of our faculty's achievements and ongoing efforts to shape the legal landscape and educate the next generation of legal minds.

Thank you for your interest in the scholarly activities at Wake Forest University School of Law. We hope you find this Faculty Scholarship Compilation both informative and inspiring.

Sincerely,

Associate Dean for Research and Academic Programs
Faculty Director for Intellectual Property, Technology, Business, and Innovation
Wake Forest University School of Law
