THE PRAYER OF INVOCATION The Reverend Timothy L. Auman
University Chaplain

THE HYMN: "I Sing the Mighty Power" FOREST GREEN

I sing the mighty power of God that made the mountains rise,
That spread the flowing seas abroad, and built the lofty skies.
I sing the wisdom that ordained the sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at God's command and all the stars obey.

I sing the goodness of the One who filled the earth with food;
Who formed the creatures with a word, and then pronounced them good.
O God, your wonders are displayed wherever I turn my eye;
If I survey the ground I tread, or gaze upon the sky!

There's not a plant or flower below but makes your glories known;
And clouds arise, and tempests blow, by order from your throne;
While all that borrows life from you is ever in your care,
And everywhere that I may be, you, God, are present there.

Words: Isaac Watts, 1715
Music: Traditional English melody
arranged by Ralph Vaughan Williams, 1906

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

DAVID L. BROOKS, Doctor of Humane Letters

David L. Brooks brings to the public square thoughtful dialogue about the major issues of our time. In his books, his television and radio commentaries, and his newspaper and magazine columns, he examines social and political matters with intelligence, fairness, and clarity. A 1983 graduate of the University of Chicago, he has written a twice-weekly column for The New York Times since 2003. Previously, he was op-ed editor and a foreign correspondent at The Wall Street Journal. He also has been a senior editor at The Weekly Standard and a contributing editor at Newsweek and the Atlantic Monthly.

DALE BUMPERS, Doctor of Laws

The Honorable Dale Bumpers represented a new breed of progressive Southern leaders when he was elected governor of Arkansas in 1970 and to the U.S. Senate in 1974. During his twenty-four years in the Senate, he was widely admired for his ethical and principled positions, most notably his devotion to the sanctity of the U.S. Constitution. Throughout his public career, he, along with his wife, Betty, strongly advocated better health care for children. The Dale and Betty Bumpers Vaccine Research Center, opened in 1999 on the campus of the National Institutes of Health, honors their decades-long advocacy.

J. BRYAN HEHIR, Doctor of Divinity

The Reverend J. Bryan Hehir, a Catholic priest, is a fearless champion of social justice and one of the leading moral voices of our time on issues of war and peace. He is currently the Parker Gilbert Montgomery Professor of the Practice of Religion and Public Life at Harvard University. He is also the secretary for Social Services and the president of Catholic Charities in the Archdiocese of Boston. His research and writing focus on ethics and foreign policy and the role of religion in world politics and in American society.

HAROLD L. MARTIN, SR., Doctor of Laws

Dr. Harold L. Martin has devoted his life to education. Last year he was appointed senior vice president for academic affairs of the sixteen-campus University of North Carolina System. Previously, as chancellor of Winston-Salem State University from 2000 to 2006, he led the institution through an unprecedented period of growth, during which enrollment nearly doubled and the campus underwent a dramatic physical transformation. Along with his advocacy of education, he also emerged as one of Winston-Salem's strongest community leaders, leading efforts to transform the city's textile- and tobacco-based economy to one driven by technology.

WOLFGANG SCHUTZ, Doctor of Science

Wolfgang Schutz, rector of the Medical University of Vienna, has devoted his life to studying the science of medicine and is a world-renowned pharmacologist. At the University of Vienna since 1974, he has served as dean of the Department of Pharmacology and dean of the School of Medicine. He has been in the forefront in promoting an academic exchange program between the Medical University of Vienna and the Wake Forest University School of Medicine.

ANNE FIROR SCOTT, Doctor of Humane Letters

Anne Firor Scott is a pioneering scholar of women's history and a prolific scholar of the South. The essence of the teacher-scholar ideal, she was the W.K. Boyd Professor of History at Duke University from 1962 until 1991. Renowned throughout her profession as "The Godmother of Southern History," she has served as president of the Southern Historical Association and the Organization of American Historians. Her groundbreaking first book, The Southern Lady: From Pedestal to Politics, published in 1970, was the first book to be based on the study of women's personal documents and established the modern study of Southern women's history.

THE WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY MACE

The Wake Forest University mace, a handsome staff decorated with scenes and symbols of the University, was first used at the inauguration of President James Ralph Scales in April, 1968. It is a traditional symbol of authority and is carried at the head of the academic processions at Commencement and convocations. The mace is shaped from a single sheet of silver covered with gold. It has an ebony handle. Etchings of Wait Chapel, Reynolda Hall, an arch at an entrance to the campus, and the cupola on the Z. Smith Reynolds Library are on the largest, or middle, section. Pictures of the Old Campus are on the top section. On the bottom are panoramas of the medical school, Carswell Hall, and the skyline of Winston-Salem. Each section is separated by raised drawings of magnolias. A double-cast seal of the University is at the top of the mace. The mace was given by Tom Davis of Winston-Salem in honor of his father, Egbert Lawrence Davis (LLB 1904).

THE PRESIDENTIAL CHAIN OF OFFICE

The Presidential Chain of Office is part of the academic regalia worn by the President at Commencement and convocations. It is a gold plated necklace of medallions linked by onyx-centered magnolia blossoms. On each medallion is the name of a former Wake Forest president and the years of his tenure. The Chain of Office was a gift to the University in 1991 from Weston P. Hatfield ('41), a life trustee and former chairman of the Board of Trustees.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia apparently originated at Oxford and Cambridge more than 600 years ago. The apparel is little changed in design, colors, and symbolism. In no other sector are the ancient usages of the university so unchanging. In 1895 an intercollegiate commission drafted a uniform code for the use of academic caps, gowns, and hoods in the United States. Over the years there have been only minor revisions to the code, which is followed by 95 percent of the colleges and universities in America, including Wake Forest.

Gowns, which according to the tradition, are all black (Harvard, Princeton, and Yale are exceptions), are of three kinds. The bachelor's gown is a comparatively simple kind that falls in straight lines from an elaborate yoke. The master's gown is similar to the bachelor's except for its peculiar arrangement of the long sleeves with square ends that hang below the elbow. The doctor's gown is an elaborate, full-cut, flowing costume distinguished by velvet panels down the front and around the neck and by three bars of velvet on the bell-shaped sleeves.

The academic hood was literally a garment to protect the wearer from foul weather. It is the identifying symbol of the degree. The length indicates which degree it represents: three feet for the bachelor's, three and a half for the master's, and four for the doctoral. The lining indicates the college or university which awarded the degree. Those who receive degrees from Wake Forest wear hoods lined in old gold and black. The color of the trimming identifies the major field of learning: white for arts and letters, copper for journalism, purple for law, green for medicine, drab for business, pink for music, silver-gray for speech, dark blue for philosophy, light blue for education, sage green for physical education, golden yellow for science, cream for social science, and scarlet for theology.

The Wake Forest University trustees wear black robes with old gold and black on the front panels and the bars on the sleeves. The shield from the University seal is embroidered on the front panels.

Some universities have duplicated colors, but generally a glance at the lining, which is worn exposed, will identify the awarding institution. Some of the university colors worn today are:
