THE HYMN: “Praise the Source of Faith and Learning” AUSTRIA
Led by The Concert Choir

1. Praise the Source of faith and learning who has sparked and stoked the mind with a passion for discerning how the world has been designed.
Let the sense of wonder flowing from the wonders we survey keep our faith forever growing and renew our need to pray:

2. God of wisdom, we acknowledge that our science and our art and the breadth of human knowledge only partial truth impart.
Far beyond our calculation lies a depth we cannot sound where your purpose for creation and the pulse of life are found.

3. May our faith redeem the blunder of believing that our thought has displaced the grounds for wonder which the ancient prophets taught.
May our learning curb the error which unthinking faith can breed and together seek to better all humankind of every creed.

4. As two currents in a river fight each other’s undertow
'til converging they deliver one coherent steady flow.
Blend, O God, our faith and learning
'til they carve a single course,
'til they join as one, returning praise and thanks to you, their Source.

Words: Thomas H. Troeger, 1987, 1989, adapted 2008

THE HONORING OF RETIRING FACULTY

BOWMAN GRAY CAMPUS

Wake Forest University honors Michael R. Adams, D.V.M., for thirty-six years of service to the University and its School of Medicine in the Department of Pathology, Section on Comparative Medicine; for meritorious research and scholarship in atherosclerosis and atherogenesis, shared in 123 published journal articles and 35 book chapters; for dedication as Director of the Post-D.V.M. Training Program; for diligence in establishing and maintaining our collaborative relationship with the Primate Center in Indonesia; for his instrumental role in developing the Wake Forest University Primate Center and his service as its Associate Director; and for his sterling example as a preclinical scientist whose research influences the practice of medicine.

Wake Forest University honors Lewis H. Nelson III, M.D., for thirty-three years of service to the University and its School of Medicine in the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, including twenty-four years as associate dean for medical student admissions; for national and international recognition in the field of fetal ultrasonography and for innovations that have enhanced the care of mothers and infants; for election as president of the American Institute of Ultrasound in Medicine; and for elevating the reputation of our medical school not only as a gifted physician, but also through his unyielding commitment to excellence in the process of recruiting outstanding future physicians to our institution.

Wake Forest University honors James F. Toole, M.D., for forty-seven years of service to the University and its School of Medicine in the Department of Neurology, including twenty-one years as department chair; for worldwide prestige as an authority on cerebrovascular disease, lead investigator on landmark studies in stroke research, and author of the seminal textbook Cerebrovascular Disorders; for novel studies on presidential disability that continue to influence public policy today; for service to the neurology community in numerous leadership positions, including president of the American Neurological Association; and for his role in positioning the School of Medicine at its current level of prominence in clinical care and research.

Wake Forest University honors Lawrence X. Webb, M.D., for twenty-five years of service to the University and its School of Medicine in the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, Division of Surgical Sciences; for international recognition as an expert in orthopaedic trauma; for receiving the highest honor for research in his field, the Orthopaedic Research and Education Foundation's Kappa Delta Award; for showcasing the department as one of the most successful participants in multicenter trials addressing trauma-related orthopedic injuries; for significant research on topically applied negative pressure and mechanisms of osteomyelitis; and for his commitment to resident education and the establishment of the Orthopaedic Trauma Fellowship at the medical school.

REYNOLDA CAMPUS

Wake Forest University honors J. Gaylord May, Ph.D., for forty-eight years of dedicated teaching, service, and research at Wake Forest University; for kindness, supportive relationships, and congenial associations with colleagues both in the Department of Mathematics and in the greater University; for leadership as a founder of the major in Mathematical Business and for serving as its adviser within the Department of Mathematics; for continual and nationally recognized research in the areas of operations research and management science; and for advising strong theses in mathematics within the graduate program of the Department of Mathematics.

Wake Forest University honors Patricia J. Roberts, J.D., for her thirty years of dedicated service to the University and the School of Law; for her extraordinary commitment to teaching and fostering the highest achievement of her students; for her widely respected expertise in the areas of Property, Decedents' Estates and Trusts, and Donative Transfers; for the furtherance of her discipline through her scholarship; for her contributions to the profession; for fostering in her students the value of the "whole person"; and for her dedication to the ideals of conscientious and community service.

Wake Forest University honors Thomas E. Roberts, J.D., for his thirty-three years of dedicated service to the University and the School of Law; for his indefatigable dedication and talent as a true teacher-scholar; for his selfless and inspiring devotion to students and their aspirations; for his nationally distinguished reputation as a leading authority in land use law; for his co-authorship of a leading case book and treatise on land use; for his prolific scholarly writings; for his stature as a leading authority in land use; for his contributions to the profession; and for his affable demeanor and genuine sense of collegiality and charity.

Wake Forest University honors Larry E. West, Ph.D., for forty-one years of dedicated service to Wake Forest and the Department of German and Russian as a beloved and devoted teacher; as a respected Medievalist and scholar of the German Passion Play; as a pioneer and champion of study abroad; as the key figure in establishing, coordinating, and promoting the programs of the Flow House in Vienna; and as a cherished friend and colleague whose loyalty, honesty, mentoring, buoyant good humor, irreverent spirit, and terrible puns will be sorely missed.

THE WAKE FOREST UNIVERSITY MACE

The Wake Forest University mace, a handsome staff decorated with scenes and symbols of the University, was first used at the inauguration of President James Ralph Scales in April 1968. It is a traditional symbol of authority and is carried at the head of the academic processions at Commencement and convocations. The mace is shaped from a single sheet of silver covered with gold. It has an ebony handle. Etchings of Wait Chapel, Reynolda Hall, an arch at an entrance to the campus, and the cupola on the Z. Smith Reynolds Library are on the largest, or middle, section. Pictures of the Old Campus are on the top section. On the bottom are panoramas of the medical school, Carswell Hall, and the skyline of Winston-Salem. Each section is separated by raised drawings of magnolias. A double-cast seal of the University is at the top of the mace. The mace was given by Tom Davis of Winston-Salem in honor of his father, Egbert Lawrence Davis (LLB 1904).

THE PRESIDENTIAL CHAIN OF OFFICE

The Presidential Chain of Office is part of the academic regalia worn by the President at Commencement and convocations. It is a goldplated necklace of medallions linked by onyx-centered magnolia blossoms. On each medallion is the name of a former Wake Forest president and the years of his tenure. The Chain of Office was a gift to the University in 1991 from Weston P. Hatfield ('41), a life trustee and former chair of the Board of Trustees.

ACADEMIC REGALIA

Academic regalia apparently originated at Oxford and Cambridge more than 600 years ago. The apparel is little changed in design, colors, and symbolism. In no other sector are the ancient usages of the university so unchanging. In 1895 an intercollegiate commission drafted a uniform code for the use of academic caps, gowns, and hoods in the United States. Over the years there have been only minor revisions to the code, which is followed by 95 percent of the colleges and universities in America, including Wake Forest.

Gowns, which according to the tradition, are all black (Harvard, Princeton, and Yale are exceptions), are of three kinds. The bachelor's gown is a comparatively simple kind that falls in straight lines from an elaborate yoke. The master's gown is similar to the bachelor's except for its peculiar arrangement of the long sleeves with square ends that hang below the elbow. The doctor's gown is an elaborate, full-cut, flowing costume distinguished by velvet panels down the front and around the neck and by three bars of velvet on the bell-shaped sleeves.

The academic hood was literally a garment to protect the wearer from foul weather. It is the identifying symbol of the degree. The length indicates which degree it represents: three feet for the bachelor's, three and a half for the master's, and four for the doctoral. The lining indicates the college or university which awarded the degree. Those who receive degrees from Wake Forest wear hoods lined in old gold and black. The color of the trimming identifies the major field of learning: white for arts and letters, copper for journalism, purple for law, green for medicine, drab for business, pink for music, silver-gray for speech, dark blue for philosophy, light blue for education, sage green for physical education, golden yellow for science, cream for social science, and scarlet for theology.

The Wake Forest University trustees wear black robes with old gold and black on the front panels and the bars on the sleeves. The shield from the University seal is embroidered on the front panels.

Some universities have duplicated colors, but generally a glance at the lining, which is worn exposed, will identify the awarding institution. Some of the university colors worn today are:

Old Gold and Black	Wake Forest University University of Missouri Johns Hopkins University Vanderbilt University Purdue University	Crimson and Cream	Indiana University University of Oklahoma
Old Gold and Maroon	University of Minnesota	Crimson and White	Southern Baptist Theological Seminary
Old Gold and White	Bryn Mawr College	Garnet and Turquoise	George Peabody College
Old Gold	University of Iowa	Scarlet	Union Theological Seminary
Gold and Yale Blue	University of California	Red and Blue	University of Pennsylvania Southern Methodist University
Gold and Navy Blue	University of Pittsburgh Emory University	Bright Red and Black	University of Cincinnati University of Georgia
