JOYFUL, JOYFUL WE ADORE YOU

1. Joy - ful, joy - ful we a - dore you, God of glo - ry, life and love;
 2. All your works with joy sur-round you, earth and heaven re - flect your rays,
 3. You are giv - ing and for - giv - ing, ev - er bless - ing, ev - er blest,
 4. Mor - tals join the might - y cho - rus which the morn - ing stars be - gan;

hearts un - fold like flowers be - fore you, open - ing to the sun a - bove.
 stars and an - gels sing a - round you, cen - tre of un - bro - ken praise.
 well - spring of the joy of liv - ing, o - cean depth of hap - py rest!
 God's own love is reign - ing o'er us, join - ing peo - ple hand in hand.

Melt the clouds of sin and sad - ness, drive the gloom of doubt a - way;
 Field and for - est, vale and moun - tain, flow - ery mead - ow, flash - ing sea,
 Source of grace and fount of bless - ing, let your light up - on us shine;
 Ev - er sing - ing, march we on - ward, vic - tors in the midst of strife;

giv - er of im - mor - tal glad - ness, fill us with the light of day.
 chant - ing bird and flow - ing foun - tain, sound their praise e - ter - nal - ly.
 teach us how to love each oth - er, lift us to the joy di - vine.
 joy - ful mu - sic leads us sun - ward in the tri - umph song of life.

TODAY'S SPEAKER

Since joining Swarthmore's community as its president in 2009, Rebecca Chopp has focused her work on the College's role in cultivating a world-wide intellectual community and in creating future leaders prepared to contribute meaningfully to society. During her first year, she embarked on an ambitious multi-city listening tour to hear from alumni, parents, and friends about the Swarthmore experience and how the College's values should help shape future decisions. Chopp also oversaw a financial restructuring that, without layoffs or cuts to core academic programs, resulted in a sustainable five-year budget plan. In the current academic year, she is engaging the entire Swarthmore community in a strategic planning exercise that will ensure the ability of the College to educate its gifted students and to expand its public role and global reach as a leader in higher education.

Chopp is a well-known scholar of progressive religious movements in American culture and has recently focused her research on changing structures and cultures of higher education, on the role of liberal arts in a democratic society, and on religion and higher education. She has authored or edited five books and has published more than 50 articles in her areas of expertise.

A native of Kansas, Chopp received a B.A. from Kansas Wesleyan University, an M.Div. from St. Paul School of Theology, and a Ph.D. from the University of Chicago. She currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Robert H.N. Ho Family Foundation and is a past board member of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, the Association of American Colleges and Universities, and the National Survey of Student Engagement. Chopp is the recipient of numerous awards, including the Alumni Achievement Award from the University of Chicago, and honorary doctorates from Lehigh University, Hamilton College, Colgate University, Kansas Wesleyan University, and Lafayette College.

Prior to Swarthmore, Chopp served as president of Colgate University, dean and Titus Street Professor of Theology at Yale Divinity School, and provost and executive vice president for academic affairs at Emory University. Her tenures at these institutions were all marked by enriching their academic programs; deepening alumni connections; and supporting leadership development for students, faculty, and staff.
