

8th Annual Artisans' Fair
Tuesday, Dec. 4, 2012
11 a.m. - 4 p.m.

Are you gifted in woodworking,
arts, crafts, etc. and wish to share/show your hand-made products with other Wake Foresters?

Plans are being made for the Artisans' Fair to be held on campus on Tuesday, Dec. 4. If you are a WFU employee (staff or faculty), spouse of a WFU employee, retiree or student, you are eligible to participate.

Restrictions are as follows:

1. Vendors must be WFU employees (faculty, staff or their spouses), retirees, or students who wish to sell or display their work. Outside vendors will not be permitted.
2. All items to be sold must be handmade by the representative.
3. Vendors must arrange to staff their booth. Tables cannot be left unattended.
4. All vendors must pay a $15 registration per table fee, two table maximum. This fee will be used to cover event expenses. No refunds available.
5. The Planning Committee reserves the right to refuse any exhibit not appropriate for this event.

To register, you must complete the form below and turn it in with your $15 [$15 per table, 2 table maximum] (cash) to one of the four committee members: Dana Hutchens (758.5246, Reynolda, Rm. 230), Gale Newport (758.5230, Benson, Rm. 335), Gloria Stickney (758.4971, Olin, Rm. 305A) or Kelley Dietz (758.3202, Alumni Hall). All registrations MUST BE received by Nov. 16 and spots are on a first-come, first served basis.

Name _____

Email address _____

Contact # (list both work & home numbers) _____

WFU Affiliation: Staff/Spouse Faculty/Spouse Student Retiree

Type of product to be sold: _____
