Prayers of the People

Melva Sampson

In this moment, you will be invited to speak your petitions aloud and ask God to bring all these things to fruition. After all petitions have been offered up, in response to these petitions, we will recite together:

All: For the prayers spoken through the air we breathe. Lord, hear our prayer. For the prayers spoken through tears. Lord, hear our prayer. For the prayers spoken through earnest pleas for a response from you. God, we hold all these petitions and prayers in our hearts and lift them up to you. We lift them up to you. Amen.

Notes for Today's Worship

About the Worship Leader

Dr. Erik Estrada, Postdoctoral Teaching and Research Fellow in Early and Medieval Christianity, holds multiple degrees in theology and medieval studies from various European and North American institutions. He holds a PhD in medieval studies from the University of Notre Dame, where he completed a dissertation on the reception of Paul's teaching on salvation from the early church to the present day. He is currently writing a book on the biblical and historical roots of Christian conversations about the doctrine of justification by faith alone.

Worship

Today's worship service was planned by Sophia Russell (MDiv '18) and Blake Tickle (MDiv '20).

The altar design was created by Sophia Russell (MDiv '18).

The bulletin cover art, "Great Fire of Rome" was retrieved from <https://goo.gl/images/7tvFuZ>.

Today's instrumental selection is "On Eagle's Wings," originally composed by Michael Joncas in 1979.
