The Days Are Surely Coming

1 The days are sure - ly com - ing, says God to all the earth,
2 The days are sure - ly com - ing, says Christ, the prom - ised one,
3 The days are sure - ly com - ing when we will know at last when you will see my prom - ise: sal - va - tion come to birth.

when you will read my warn - ing in moon and stars and sun.
the full - ness of God's pres - ence, God's prom - ise, come to pass.

My righ - teous - ness and jus - tice will spread through - out the land
Though earth and heav - en trem - ble, stand up and do not fear,
Then righ - teous - ness and jus - tice will spread through - out the land and you will be de - liv - ered by my al - might - y hand.

for I am your re - deem - er, and I am draw - ing near.
and we will be de - liv - ered by God's al - might - y hand.

This text uses imagery from Jeremiah 33:14–16 and Matthew 24:29–36 / Mark 13:24–32 / Luke 21:25–36. These passages are especially associated with the beginning of Advent, a season that looks forward to Christ's second coming while also preparing us to remember his first coming.

Notes for Today's Worship

Scripture Reading: Jeremiah 31:31-34

31 The days are surely coming, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and the house of Judah. 32 It will not be like the covenant that I made with their ancestors when I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt—a covenant that they broke, though I was their husband,[a] says the Lord. 33 But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. 34 No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the Lord," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

About the Worship Leader

Lia Scholl has been pastor of Wake Forest Baptist Church since August of 2014. She completed her MDiv. at Beeson Divinity School in Birmingham, Alabama, where she learned a deep love for our sacred Scripture and a deep distaste for theologies that promote exclusion. Prior to coming to Wake Forest, she worked in developing a ministry for sex workers, people suffering from substance abuse, and women exiting prison as a bi-vocational pastor.

Worship

Today's worship service was planned by Taina Diaz-Reyes (MDiv '19) and Sean McClure (MDiv '19).

The altar design was created by Pamela Mitchell (MDiv '19).
